(2) The official photographer shall thereafter take the photograph of that person and then affix his signature in ink to the original and duplicate of the certificate. He shall return the duplicate to that person and retain the original with him, attaching to it the photograph of that person.

(3) An application for the registration of a person shall not be deemed to be completed until his photograph has been taken in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this regulation.

(4) The official photographer shall transmit to the registering officer who issued the certificate, without delay and in any case within seven days, the original of the certificate presented to him under paragraph (1) and three copies of the photograph taken by him of the person who presented it.

(5) The registering officer shall on receipt of the documents from the photographer forward them forthwith, and in any case within seven days, to the Chief Elections Officer along with the registration record card and the identification card relating to that application. The Chief Elections Officer may give instructions to the registering officer as to the manner in which such documents shall be forwarded to him.

(6) Where a person has presented himself to the photographer but his photograph has been spoilt or misplaced, the registering officer may require him to have his photograph retaken as many times as may be required to obtain a satisfactory photograph of that person.

Chief Elections Officer to return documents to Registering Officer.

17. (1) On receipt of the registration record card, the identification card, copies of the photograph, and the certificate as to registration in respect of any person, the Chief Elections Officer shall -

- (a) cause copies of the said photograph of the applicant to be attached to the identification card, and to the original and duplicate of the registration record card of that person;
- (b) thereafter cause the identification card to be laminated; and
- (c) return the original of the registration record card and the identification card to the registering officer.

(2) Where a document required to be sent to the Chief Elections Officer under the provisions of paragraph (1) is not received by him or is lost or there is any error or insufficiency therein, the Chief Elections Officer may require the registering officer to cause the same to be remedied.

18. (1) On receipt of the originals of the registration record card and the identification cards from the Chief Elections Officer the registering officer shall file the registration record cards of the electors in a binder designed for that purpose, in a manner to be prescribed by the Chief Elections Officer.
- Filing of Registration record cards in Town Council
registers.
- (2) The binder referred to in paragraph (1) shall be capable of being locked in such manner as the Chief Elections Officer may determine so that no registration record card filed therein may be removed or any registration record card inserted except by the application of force.
19. The Chief Elections Officer shall, in respect of each town, place in an alphabetical or numerical series or a combined alphabetical and numerical series the duplicate of the registration record cards received by him from the registering officers and perfected in his office by the affixing of the photographs of the applicants.
- Filing of cards in alien Central Register.
20. (1) The registering officers shall, on or before a date to be specified in consultation with the Chief Elections Officer by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette, prepare and publish a register of alien electors substantially in Form 9 showing the serial number of the registration record card, the names, occupation, address and other particulars of all persons in respect of whom registration record cards have been prepared and to whom identification cards are to be issued.
- Register of aliens.

Form 9.
- (2) Not later than seven days after the register of alien electors has been published the registering officer shall publish a notice specifying the places where that register is available for inspection.
21. (1) Every person whose name has been omitted from any such register of alien electors, and who claims to have his name inserted therein, shall, on or before the 15th day of September give notice in writing to the registering officer, according to Form 3 of these Regulations; and every person whose name appears in any register of electors for the town concerned may object to any other person whose name also appears in any such register as not being entitled to have his name inserted therein.

Form 10.

(2) Every person so objecting shall, on or before the 15th day of September give or cause to be given to the registering officer and the person objected to, or leave or cause to be left at the usual place of abode of such person, notice of such objection in writing, according to the Form 10 A or Form 10 B respectively set out in the Schedule to these Regulations.

(3) Immediately after the 15th day of September every registering officer shall prepare a list of all such applications, appeals and objections and the name of the person who has made the same, and shall cause a copy of such list to be published before the 20th day of September next following.

PART III REVISING COURT

Applications, objections and appeals.

22. Where applications, objections or appeals are received within the prescribed time, under Regulation 5, Regulation 8 or Regulation 21, the registering officer shall prepare a list of such applications, objections and appeals and the names of the persons who have made the same, and shall produce the same in open court.

Annual court to
23 of 1991.

23. (1) Immediately after the 1st day of March in each year an open court shall be held in each district town for the purpose of revising the register of electors published under Regulation 3.

(2) The magistrate of the district in which a town is situated shall be the Revising Officer for that town.

Powers of Court.
23 of 1991.

24. (1) The Court shall have powers to adjourn to such time and as often as may be necessary; provided that it must conclude its work no later than the 5th day of March.

(2) The Revising Officer shall also have power to administer oaths to all persons claiming to be registered as electors, or claiming to have any mistake or omission corrected in the said register and to all witness produced on either side.

25. The court shall determine all applications, objections and appeals produced before it, and the Revising Officer shall write his initials against any name struck out of the register or inserted therein and against any mistake or omission corrected, and shall sign his name to every page of the register when the same are finally settled. Court to determine application, etc.
26. If the Court is of the opinion that the application or objection made by any person is without foundation or frivolous, it may award costs to be paid by such person to the person resisting the application or objection. For the purpose of compelling the attendance of witnesses and for enforcing the payment of costs awarded as aforesaid the Court shall be deemed to be and have all the powers of a Court of Summary jurisdiction. Costs.
27. A certificate signed by the Revising Officer purporting to state opinion of the Court shall in any proceedings be conclusive evidence thereof. Evidence of opinion of Court.
28. The registers of electors when finally settled and signed as aforesaid shall be delivered by the Court to the registering officer who shall keep the same and shall cause the names to be truly and fairly recorded, in alphabetical order or in order of streets or polling areas or such combination of those as he may think fit, in separate registers one of national and the other of alien electors, and shall cause such recording to be completed within five days after the delivery to him of such registers by the Court, and shall sign and certify the same. Recording of names in register. 69 of 1981.
29. (1) Every registering officer shall immediately after he has signed and certified the said registers of electors transmit them to the Chief Elections Officer who shall upon the receipt of the registers countersign and date them and shall cause a copy of the same to be published. Transmission of registers to Chief Elections Officer.
- (2) The registers so dated, signed and published shall, subject to the determination of any pending appeal, form the Register of Electors for that town and shall remain in force until a new register is published as herein provided and it shall remain in the custody of the Chief Elections Officer.

(3) A copy of any register so published or any document purporting to be a register and purporting to be signed by the Chief Elections Officer as being correct shall on production be admitted as evidence of the existence and the contents of any such register in all courts.

Delivery of identification card.

30. (1) The registering officer shall after the register of alien electors has been certified by him under Regulation 28 cause to be delivered to each alien whose name appears therein and in respect of which name there is no appeal pending, a completed identification card relating to such person in exchange for the duplicate of the certificate as to registration of such person issued to him by the registering officer and endorsed by the official photographer.

(2) Before delivery of an identification card to him the recipient shall place his signature on the duplicate or if the duplicate is not produced, on the original of the certificate as to registration forwarded by the photographer along with the photograph.

(3) Where the person delivering the identification card is satisfied-

(a) that person to whom it relates is unable to produce the duplicate of his certificate as to registration, and

(b) that there is no doubt as to the identity of that person, he may issue the identification card to such person on that person placing his signature on the original certificate of registration and on his giving a receipt therefor in a form approved by the Chief Elections Officer.

31. (1) Any person who is dissatisfied, on any point of law material to the case, with any decision of a revising officer to insert, retain or remove any name from any register, may either in person or by some person on his behalf, give to the revising officer, not later than forty-eight hours after the decision is given, a notice of appeal in writing containing a short statement of the decision against which he is appealing.

Who may appeal and procedure on appeal.

(2) The revising officer shall within seven days state in writing the facts material to the matter in question which in his judgment have been established by evidence and his decision upon the whole case, for the opinion of the Supreme Court and this shall constitute an appeal under Part X of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act.

CAP. 91.

(3) The revising officer shall endorse on the case so stated as aforesaid the respective first names and surname and place of abode of the appellant and the respondent (if any), and he shall sign and date the endorsement and transmit the case to the Registrar, and also deliver a copy of the case so endorsed to the appellant and respondent (if any) in the appeal if either requires the same.

(4) The Registrar upon receiving a case so stated from a revising officer shall file the same in the Supreme Court, and upon application to the Chief Justice, obtain from him an appointment for the hearing of the appeal and shall give notice to the appellant and respondent, not less than fourteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

32. If any person feels aggrieved by a revising officer's refusing or neglecting to state a case as above, he may, within fourteen days after such refusal or neglect, apply to the Supreme Court upon affidavit of the facts, and the Supreme Court shall thereupon, summon the revising officer and also the respondent (if any) to show cause why an Order should not be made directing the appeal to be entertained and a case to be stated.

Person aggrieved may apply for order calling on Revising Officer to show cause.

Power of
Supreme Court.

33. Upon receipt of an application under Regulation 32 the Supreme Court may make such Order to show cause and may make the same absolute with or without costs, as may be just, and the revising officer on being served with any Order absolute, shall state the case accordingly, and the case shall be stated and the appeal entertained and heard as above provided.

Decision of
to be final.

34. (1) Every judgment or decision made by the Supreme Court shall be final and conclusive in the case upon the matter adjudicated upon.

(2) The Registrar shall send a copy of such order to the registering officer of the relevant division.

Order expunging
name.

35. (1) The registering officer, on the receipt of the order from the Supreme Court shall, if the order is for expunging the name of a person from the aliens register of electors -

- (i) strike out the name from the register;
- (ii) cancel the registration record card in the manner hereinafter prescribed;
- (iii) call for the return of the identification card for cancellation, if it has already been issued to the person;
- (iv) make the necessary alterations in the register and other records.

(2) Where the Court orders the insertion of a name in any register, the provisions of Regulations 9 to 19 mutatis mutandis apply in respect of that appellant and the registering officer shall -

- (i) notify the Chief Elections Officer of the said order and the necessary particulars thereof;

- (ii) cause to be delivered to the person so added the completed identification card relating to such person in exchange for the duplicate of the certificate as to registration of such person issued to him by the registering officer and endorsed by the official photographer; and
- (iii) make the necessary alteration in the register and other records.

(3) The registering officer shall notify the Chief Elections Officer without delay of the changes effected under paragraph (1), and the Chief Elections Officer shall make the necessary changes in the register and other records.

(4) Where the registering officer cancels the registration of a person whose name has been struck out by a revising court, he shall note on the registration record card of such person the reason for the cancellation, stamp or write the word “cancelled” on the face of the registration record and retain the identification card of such person for destruction.

(5) Immediately on the cancellation of a registration under this regulation the registering officer shall inform the Chief Elections Officer of the name of the person whose registration has been cancelled, the reason therefor, and the date of cancellation; and the Chief Elections Officer shall thereupon cause the duplicate of the appropriate registration record card to be cancelled in the manner set out in paragraph (4) hereof.

PART IV GENERAL PROVISIONS

Correction of
minor errors.

36. (1) Any clerical error or omission in a registration record card of an alien and any other error in any such card that has been caused by the inadvertence of a registering officer or the person seeking registration may be corrected or inserted, as the case may require, by the registering officer who registered the person to whom such registration record card or identification card relates.

(2) Where the description of the address of a registered alien has been altered by lawful authority, a registering officer may make the appropriate alteration on the registration record card of such person.

(3) A correction, insertion or alteration made under this regulation shall be initialled by the registering officer and by the person to whom the card relates.

(4) The registering officer shall inform the Chief Elections Officer of any correction, insertion or alteration made under this regulation and the Chief Elections Officer shall make or cause to be made the necessary changes in the appropriate duplicate registration record card.

Correction of
and dates of birth.

37. Where an alien is popularly known or called by a name which is other than that appearing on his certificate of birth and is registered under such popular name, or where an alien at the time that he is seeking registration gives as the date of his birth a date which he subsequently discovers to be inaccurate, he shall notify the registering officer and the registering officer shall, if he is satisfied that the facts stated are true, re-register or cause such person to be reregistered in the manner set out for the registration of persons qualified to be registered but so that his registration number shall not be changed.

- | | | | |
| 38. | (1) | Where an identification card which has been issued to any alien- | Replacement of lost, inaccurate etc., identification cards. |
| | (a) | has been lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated or defaced; or | |
| | (b) | is discovered to contain information given by such person which is inaccurate or incorrect, | |

the alien may apply to the registering officer of the town in which he resides for the replacement of such identification card, and such registering officer, if he is satisfied that the application is a bona fide one, shall issue to such person a replacement identification card.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall be in Form 11 and shall be accompanied by the fee specified in paragraph (9). Form 11.

(3) The registering officer shall not issue a replacement identification card until, in the case of a card -

- (a) which is discovered to contain inaccurate or incorrect information; or
- (b) which has become mutilated or defaced, such card has been delivered to him for destruction.

(4) The registering officer for the town in which the applicant resides at the time of his application for a replacement identification card shall -

- (a) endorse thereon a note to the effect that such card is a replacement identification card; and
- (b) if he is satisfied that the contents thereof are correct, either sign such card himself or cause it to be signed by the registering officer for the time being assigned to that division.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6) a replacement identification card shall contain such particulars as were recorded on the identification card of the person to whom it relates.

(6) When a registering officer issues a replacement identification card he may -

(a) insert therein the print of a photograph different from that which was affixed to the identification card which it replaces if he is satisfied that it is a sufficiently good likeness of the person to whom it relates; and

(b) in a case where it is discovered that an identification card contains information which is inaccurate or incorrect, insert such alteration on the replacement identification card as, after an inquiry made for the purpose, he may consider necessary and proper:

Provided that where the registering officer accepts a photograph different from that which was on the identification card that is being replaced he shall cause copies of that photograph to be attached to the registration record card and to the duplicate registration record card maintained by the Chief Elections Officer.

(7) Whenever a registering officer issues a replacement identification card, he shall make or cause to be made an entry in the space allocated for remarks on the appropriate registration record card showing the date of the issue of such card and shall -

- (a) notify the Chief Elections Officer of the issue of such card and the Chief Elections Officer shall cause the necessary entries to be made in the duplicate of the registration record card of such person; and
- (b) transmit, in cases where the original identification card is required by these Regulations to be surrendered, the surrendered identification card to the Chief Elections Officer.

(8) A registering officer, on being satisfied as to the death of any alien registered in his division to whom an identification card was issued under these Regulations shall as soon as practicable after being so satisfied, require the personal representative of such person or any person in possession of the same to surrender to him the identification card that was issued to such person, if the registering officer is satisfied that it is within the power of any such person so to do.

- (9) There shall be payable for every replacement identification card-
 - (a) in the case of a first issue, five dollars;
 - (b) in the case of any further issue, ten dollars;

but the Chief Elections Officer may, except where a replacement identification card is issued as a result of incorrect or inaccurate information given by the person to whom such card relates, on the ground of poverty or for other good cause, remit or refund the said fee or any part thereof.

39. (1) If both the original and the duplicate of a registration record card of an alien is lost, mutilated defaced or destroyed the appropriate registering officer shall require that person to be registered anew, and if he neglects or refuses so to do the registering officer shall require him to surrender his identification card.

Partial or total loss of registration record card.

(2) If either the original or the duplicate of a registration record card of an alien is lost, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, the Chief Elections Officer shall prepare a photo static record from the remaining copy and that copy shall be deemed to replace the lost, mutilated, defaced or destroyed original or duplicate of the registration record card, as the case may be; and the Chief Elections Officer shall make and sign a certificate on the photo static copy to the effect that it is a true and correct reproduction.

(3) If the registration record card of an alien whose name is on the revised register of electors for a town and who produces his identification card does not appear in the binder of registration record cards for that town, the Chief Elections Officer shall cause a registration record card to be prepared for such person and such registration record card shall be included in the binder of registration record cards of electors for that town.

Substitution of
cards.

40. (1) The Minister may, not earlier than eight years nor later than ten years from the date of the issue of an identification card under these Regulations require every alien holder of an identification card to surrender such card for inspection and may, if he considers it proper, substitute a new identification card with a fresh photograph for the identification card so surrendered.

(2) Any person who fails to surrender such card for inspection when required to do so under paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Seeking
registration.

41. Any person who, being registered as an elector, applies for registration an elector in any town and does not disclose in such application the fact of his being already registered as an elector, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on summary conviction be liable to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Inspection of documents.

42. Where a document is made available for inspection any person may make a copy of, or take extracts from such document.

43. No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place in any register list, list of applications or objections or in any notice shall prejudice the operation of that document with respect to that person or place, in any case where the description of that person or place is such as to be commonly understood. No misnomer to prejudice decision.
44. Any failure to publish a document in accordance with these Regulations shall not invalidate the document nor make any action taken thereafter on the strength of that document ineffectual. Effect of non-publication.
45. Every registering officer shall keep the original registers to be pursued by any person during office hours without payment of any fee. Registers to be kept accessible for perusal.
- 45:01. No elector may be transferred from one Town Council Register to another Town Council Register at any time after the term of office of the Council has expires. Transfer of electors from one Town Council Register to another. 10 of 1997.

PART V HOLDING OF ELECTIONS

46. (1) For the purposes of every election of members of a new Council and for the purposes of the election of members to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation or otherwise the Returning Officer shall give notice in the Gazette of the day and place on and at which he will received nominations of candidates. Nomination papers shall be in the form prescribed in Form 12 to these Regulations and shall be supplied by the Returning Officer. Publication of Notice of Elections. Form 12.
- (2) Nomination day shall not be less than seven clear days after the date of publication of the notice in the Gazette and shall not be more than fifteen clear days after the expiration of the period of office of the existing Council.
47. Before the day fixed for the nomination of candidates the Returning Officer shall obtain from the Chief Elections Officer the prescribed number of certified copies of the register of electors for the town for the time being in Copies of Register of Electors to be obtained.

Nomination of Candidates.

48. (1) On the day and at the place fixed for the nomination of candidates the Returning Officer shall attend at 11 a.m. and receive the nominations of any duly qualified candidates..

(2) Every candidate shall be proposed by two other persons whose names appear on the register of electors for the town for the time being in force and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Returning Officer his written consent to be nominated.

(3) If by noon no more candidates shall have been nominated than there are seats to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare such candidates to have been duly elected.

Objection to Nomination.

49. (1) It shall be lawful for any person whose name appears on the register of electors for any town to object to the nomination paper of any candidate and the Returning Officer shall decide on the validity of every objection made.

(2) If the Returning Officer disallows the objections his decision shall be final, but if he allows the same his decision shall be subject to reversal on petition questioning the election or return.

Insufficient Nomination.

50. If no person or an insufficient number of persons shall be nominated and offer themselves for election, the Minister may nominate as many members as may be required to fill the vacant seats.

Nomination in excess of
candidates.

51. (1) If more candidates are nominated than there shall be seats to be filled, the Returning Officer shall thereupon appoint a day, being not more than fifteen days thereafter, for the holding of the election.

(2) A candidate for election or someone on his behalf shall at the time of his nomination, deposit or cause to be deposited, with the Returning Officer the sum of twenty-five dollars, and if he shall fail to do so, the nomination of such candidate shall be deemed to be void.

(3) If after the deposit is made the candidate is withdrawn, the deposit shall be returned to the person by whom the deposit was made and if the candidate dies after the deposit is made and before the poll is commenced, the deposit, if made by him, shall be returned to his legal personal representative, or, if not made by him, shall be returned to the person by whom it was made.

(4) A notice of such election shall be published.

(5) If a candidate who has made the required deposit is not elected, and the number of votes polled by him does not exceed one-tenth of the total number of votes polled, the amount deposited shall be forfeited to the Crown, but in any other case the deposit shall be returned to the person who made the deposit or to his personal representative as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation the number of votes polled shall be deemed to be the number of ballot papers (other than rejected ballot papers) counted.

52. A candidate may at any time before the day appointed for holding the election, but not afterwards, withdraw from his candidature by giving a notice to that effect, signed by him, to the Returning Officer, and in such case if there are no more remaining candidates than there are seats to be filled, such candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected and notice of their election shall be published by the Returning Officer. Withdrawal of candidate.

53. Every Returning Officer shall appoint fit and proper persons to be clerks for attendance at the polling station or polling stations. Clerks at polling station.

Appointment of additional polling stations and presiding officers if necessary.

54. (1) The Returning Officer may, if he considers it necessary, appoint more than one polling station, but in case of such appointment he shall appoint presiding officers for the taking of the poll at such polling station or polling stations.

(2) Where more than one polling station is established for any town the Returning Officer shall divide the register of electors for the town into as many separate parts as there are polling stations in that town.

(3) Where only one polling station is established for any town the registering officer shall make the binders of registration record cards available at the polling station for the purpose of checking the identity of electors. When more than one polling station is established for any town the registering officer shall break up the binders of registration record cards relating to that town into as many separate parts as there are polling stations in that town and supply each such polling station with the part of the binders of registration record cards relating to that polling station. After the completion of the poll the registering officer shall ensure that the binders of registration record cards is restored to its original position.

(4) The Returning Officer shall provide each polling station with such number of compartments as he may consider necessary to enable electors to record their votes screened from observation.

Conduct of election.

55. (1) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the proper carrying out of the provisions of these Regulations in regard to the conduct of elections at the polling station or polling stations.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, where only one polling station is appointed, preside at and conduct the election at the polling station.

Time of voting.

56. The voting shall commence at the polling stations at 7 a.m. of the day appointed for holding the election, and shall close at 6 p.m. of the same day.

57. (1) The Chief Elections Officer shall supply to the Returning Officer such number of ballot boxes as in his opinion may be necessary for taking the poll in that town. Ballot boxes.

(2) Every ballot box shall be made of some durable material with one lock and key and a slit or narrow opening in the top and so constructed that the ballot papers may be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom unless the box is unlocked.

(3) The Chief Elections Officer shall also supply the Returning Officer of each town with such number of ballot papers as in his opinion may be necessary for taking the poll in that town. The Chief Elections Officer shall also supply the Returning Officer of each town with such quantities of such materials as are enumerated in paragraph (2) of the next regulation to enable the Returning Officer to discharge his functions under that regulation.

58. (1) The Returning Officer shall provide each presiding officer with such number of ballot boxes and ballot papers as in the opinion of the Returning Officer may be necessary. Supplies of election materials.

- (2) The Returning Officer shall provide each polling station with -
- (a) the necessary materials to enable electors to mark the ballot papers;
 - (b) the necessary materials for putting the official mark on the ballot papers;
 - (c) at least three copies, which he shall certify, of the register of electors;
 - (d) at least three copies of the directions for the guidance of electors in the form set out in Regulation 63 hereof;

- (e) a statement showing the number of ballot papers so provided, with their serial numbers;
- (f) the several forms of oaths to be administered to elections officers; and
- (g) such other things as may be necessary for conducting the elections in the manner provided by these Regulations.

(3) Until the opening of the poll the presiding officer shall keep the official copies of the register of electors, forms of oaths envelopes, ballot papers, and other election supplies carefully locked up in the ballot boxes, and shall take every precaution for their safe keeping and to prevent any person from having unlawful access to them.

(4) Before the hour fixed for the opening of the poll, the presiding officer shall post up in each compartment of the polling station and in a conspicuous place outside of the polling station one copy of the directions issued by the Chief Elections Officer for the guidance of the electors in voting.

Polling agents and counting agents.

59. (1) Each candidate shall have the power to appoint polling agents to be present at polling stations within the town:

Provided that not more than one such agent shall be present within a polling station at any one time.

(2) Each candidate may appoint not more than three counting agents to attend at the counting of votes.

(3) Every appointment of an agent shall be in writing and shall state the name and address of the person and shall be given duly signed by the candidate to the presiding officer or the returning officer as the case may be.

60. (1) The presiding officer shall keep order at the polling station and shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at a time, and shall exclude all other persons except his assistant, the Chief Elections Officer, the Assistant Chief Elections Officer, the Returning Officer, the Elections Clerk, the candidate in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 59 and the police officers on duty.

Who are to be admitted within the polling station. 69 of 1981.

(2) The agents aforesaid shall be posted in such a place that they can see each person who presents himself as a voter and hear his name as given in by him, but so that they cannot see how any voter votes.

(3) The agents shall not interfere in the proceedings save in-so-far as they may be allowed by these Regulations.

(4) If any person persists, after being warned, in disobeying the directions of the presiding officer or in acting in contravention of these Regulations, the presiding officer may cause him to be removed from the polling station.

61. The non-attendance of any candidate or of any agent nominated by him shall not in anyway invalidate any act or thing done under these regulations if such act or thing done is otherwise duly done, notwithstanding that such act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of such candidate or of his duly authorised agent.

Non-attendance of candidates not to invalidate acts.

62. (1) The presiding officer may at any time summon constables within the polling stations for the purpose of preserving order.

Order at polling station.

(2) If any agent persists, after being warned, in contravening these provisions it shall be lawful for the presiding officer to have him turned out of the polling station.

63. For the guidance of electors when voting, notices shall be printed in conspicuous characters and placarded outside the polling station and in every compartment of the polling station in the following form, and these directions shall have the force of law:

Directions

- (1) Each voter may vote only at one polling station and may vote for as many candidates as he chooses up to a number not exceeding the number of candidates to be elected.
- (2) The voter shall go into one of the compartments and mark a cross on the right-hand side of the ballot paper given to him by the presiding officer opposite the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote.
- (3) The voter shall then fold up his ballot paper so as to conceal the vote, but so as to show the official mark on the back, show the presiding officer the official mark, then put his ballot paper in the ballot box and leave the room.
- (4) If the voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the presiding officer, who shall, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper.
- (5) If the voter votes for more candidates than there are seats to be filled, or places any mark on the paper by which he may be afterwards identified, his ballot paper shall be void and shall not be counted.

Taking of poll and the ballot.

64. (1) The poll shall be taken in each polling area by secret ballot in accordance with the provisions of Regulations 68 and 70 of these regulations.

17 of 2000.
Form 13.

(2) The ballot of each voter shall be a printed paper (in these Regulations called a ballot paper) in Form 13 in which the names of all the candidates in each party are set out beginning with the name of the candidate for Mayor and following with the names of all the other candidates in alphabetical order, commencing with the party that had the majority in the outgoing Town Council, with the colour and symbol, if any, that may have been allocated to each candidate or to his party by the Chief Elections Officer printed against each name.

(3) Each ballot paper shall have a number printed on the back as in Form 13.

Form 13.

(4) For the guidance of voters the Chief Elections Officer may issue sample ballot papers conforming with Form 13.

Form 13.

65. (1) No person other than the Chief Elections Officer or a person authorised by him shall print, or publish any form prescribed by these Regulations.

Printing, publishing, etc., of prescribed forms prohibited.

(2) Any person who prints or publishes any form prescribed by these Regulations in contravention of the provisions of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon summary conviction of a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term of three months or to both.

(3) Any person who distributes any form printed or published in contravention of the provision of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon summary conviction to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one month or to both.

66. In cases where a poll is to take place the presiding officer shall take care that the polling station is provided with such proper doors, barriers, tables, chairs, lighting equipment and other conveniences as may be necessary, and that the same are properly arranged for carrying out the provisions of these Regulations, and he shall also provide proper ballot box or boxes and such other conveniences for taking the poll as he may deem necessary.

Presiding officer to provide ballot boxes, etc.

67. The Returning Officer shall on request give such instructions as may appear to be necessary to any elector as to the manner in which he should record his vote.

Assistance to voters.

poll.

68. (1) At the hour fixed for opening the poll the presiding officer and poll clerk shall, in the presence of the candidates, or their agents and such of the voters as are present, open the ballot box and ascertain that there are no ballot papers or other papers therein, after which the box shall be locked, and the presiding officer shall keep the key thereof, and the box shall be placed on a table in full view of all present and maintained there until the closing of the poll.

(2) Immediately after the ballot box is so locked, the presiding officer shall call on the voters to vote.

(3) The presiding officer shall secure the admittance of every voter in the polling station and shall see that he is not impeded or molested at or about the polling station.

(4) Subject to subsection (2) of section 15 of the Act, every voter, upon entering the polling station, shall produce his identification card and shall declare his name, residence and occupation.

(5) The presiding officer shall mark the ballot paper on the back with his initials and, calling out the name of the voter in an audible voice, and marking the voter in such manner as is prescribed by this regulation, deliver the paper to him within the polling station.

(6) Any candidate or the polling agent of any candidate may challenge the identity of any voter, and shall upon so challenging the identity of any voter is entitled to examine the identification card of that voter and to compare the same with the registration record card relating to such voter.

(7) A voter shall be marked by the dipping of the forefinger of his right hand up to at least the first joint in indelible ink. If a voter has no forefinger on his right hand or if for any other reasons it is, in the opinion of the presiding officer, not practical to mark such forefinger such other finger as the presiding officer shall direct shall be marked in the manner prescribed or, if in the opinion of the presiding officer it is not practical to mark any finger of a voter, such voter shall be marked with indelible ink in such way as the presiding officer may deem fit.

(8) The voter shall then retire to one of the compartments provided for the purpose, but within the polling station, and having privately marked his vote on the ballot paper in the manner prescribed by the preceding paragraph and folded it up so as to conceal his vote, but so as to show the initials of the presiding officer on the back shall place it in the ballot box in the presence of the presiding officer after having shown to him the official mark on the back, and the voter, having voted, shall forthwith leave the polling station.

(9) The presiding officer, after having delivered to the voter a ballot paper and while the voter is recording his vote, shall make a mark against the name of the voter on his copy of the register of electors to indicate that the vote of that person has been received, but not so as to show the particular ballot paper given to him.

69. (1) The presiding officer at any polling station shall receive the votes of all duly qualified persons whose names are on the register of electors and who appear and apply for a ballot paper.

Presiding officer to receive votes.

(2) Where the name of any person, who has been duly registered as an elector either under the Representation of the People Act or under these Regulations and in respect of whom a registration record card has been completed does not appear on the register of electors, such person shall nevertheless, upon production by him of his identification card, be permitted to vote in the polling area in which he would have been entitled to vote:

CAP. 9.

Provided that the presiding officer shall maintain a list of the names and registration numbers of the electors thus permitted to vote and of the number of the ballot paper issued to each of them.

Voting by Proxy.
69 of 1981.

69:01. (1) Any elector unable to cast his vote at the polling station in the polling area in which his name appears on the register of electors by reason of the fact that -

- (a) he is a person employed in an essential service elsewhere; or
- (b) he is a member of the Belize Defence Force; or
- (c) he is a policeman assigned for duty in some other polling area; or
- (d) he is a person acting as an election officer in some other polling station; or
- (e) he is a person employed in transporting or in any other manner assisting an election officer in some other polling station, may vote by proxy:

Provided that -

- (a) a person shall not be entitled to have more than one person at a time appointed as proxy to vote for him at the election;
- (b) a person shall not be capable of being appointed to vote as proxy unless he is eighteen years of age or over and not subject to any legal incapacity to vote thereat;
- (c) the appointment shall be made by the Returning Officer by means of a proxy paper issued by him in the manner set out in Form 14 on application made to him by the elector;

- (d) the application shall be in the manner set out in Form 15 and shall be signed by the voter in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, the Commissioner of Police or the Commander of the Belize Defence Force, as the occasion permits.

(2) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on any instrument appointing a proxy under these Regulations.

(3) The Returning Officer shall keep a record of electors for whom proxies have been appointed and the names and addresses of the persons so appointed.

(4) Any person who impersonates a proxy in any manner acts in contravention of this regulation shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(5) The Minister may by order prescribe what services are essential services for the purposes of this regulation.

70. (1) The presiding officer may, at his discretion, and shall, if required by any candidate, or any person representing a candidate at the time of the votes being received, put to any voter, who is in possession of an identification card, at the time of tendering his vote, the following questions, or either of them, and no other - Questions which may be put to voters.

- (a) are you the same person whose name appears as (A.B. as the case may be) on the register of electors now in force?

(b) have you already voted at this election either here or elsewhere for the election of members of the Council?

(2) Where any voter is, at the time of tendering his vote, not in possession of an identification card, the presiding officer may at his discretion ask any question relating to his identity, his place of residence, his age and any other matter that may be of assistance in establishing the voter as being the “person whose name appears in the register” for that town.

(3) If any person refuses to answer any question so put to him, the presiding officer may refuse to receive his vote.

(4) If any person makes a false answer to any such question he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for six months.

Spoilt ballot.

71. (1) A voter who has so inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the presiding officer and proving the inadvertence to the satisfaction of that officer, obtain another ballot paper in place of that so delivered (hereinafter called a spoilt ballot paper).

(2) The spoilt ballot papers shall immediately be cancelled at the presiding officer writing the word “cancelled” across the face and initialling it, and he shall retain the same.

Provisions as to voting where voter is physically incapacitated from voting in the ordinary way.

72. If any voter is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed by these Regulations, the presiding officer shall, at the request of that voter, in the presence of the agents (if any) of the candidates, cause his vote to be marked on a ballot paper in the manner directed by the presiding officer, and the ballot paper so marked to be placed in the ballot box, and the name and number on the register of electors of every voter whose vote is so marked for him and the reason why it is so marked shall be entered on a list which shall be kept by the presiding officer.

73. (1) Except when there is only one polling station every presiding officer shall, immediately after the close of the poll, in the presence of the agents (if any) of the candidates, make up into separate packets or parcels and seal -

Ballot box and papers to be sealed.

- (a) the ballot box or boxes in use at his station which shall not be opened by him and shall be so sealed as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers;
- (b) the key or keys of the ballot box or boxes used at the poll;
- (c) the unused and spoilt ballot papers;
- (d) the marked copies of the register of electors.

74. The Returning Officer shall open the sealed ballot boxes as soon as practicable after they have all been received from the polling.

Opening of ballot boxes.

75. Each Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents (if any), if they or any of them desires to be present, and of such other person or persons as he may deem proper, proceed respectively as follows -

Procedure thereafter.

- (a) he shall, before opening any ballot box, compare the several marked copies of the register of electors used at the polling station or stations, so as to ascertain whether a vote has been taken in the name of the same voter at more stations than one, and, if any vote has been so taken, shall record in writing the stations at which it has been taken and the number of the voter on the register of electors;
- (b) he shall then proceed to examine the ballot boxes, papers, and documents in his possession (examining the ballot boxes, papers, and documents received from each polling station one station at a time) in the following manner -

- (i) he shall count the ballot papers in the ballot box and the unused and spoilt ballot papers, so as to ascertain whether these papers, account for all ballot papers issued for the purpose of the election in the particular polling station with which he is dealing and shall record in writing the result of the examination;
- (ii) the Returning Officer, after counting the votes as aforesaid, shall make up into one packet the ballot papers, and all other papers and documents, and the record of the result of the examination in this sub-paragraph mentioned and shall seal up the packet so that the same cannot be opened without breaking the seals;
- (c) each Returning Officer shall, so far as is practicable, proceed continuously with the counting of the votes, allowing only time for refreshment, and during the excluding time the Returning Officer shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election under seal and otherwise take proper precaution for their security.

Ballot paper when void and not counted.

76. (1) Any ballot paper -

- (a) which does not have the presiding officer's initials on the back of it; or

- (b) in which the elector has voted for more candidates than there are seats to be filled; or
- (c) which is not marked for any candidate; or
- (d) which contains any writing or mark by which the elector could be identified; or
- (e) which is unmarked or void for uncertainty, shall be void and shall not be counted.

(2) The Returning Officer shall endorse “rejected” on any ballot paper which he may reject as void and in case of a ballot paper on which any vote is to be counted under paragraph (3) hereof he shall endorse the words “rejected in part” and a memorandum specifying the votes to be counted, and shall add to the endorsement “rejection objected to” if an objection be in fact made to his decision by any person entitled to be present.

(3) Where an elector is entitled to vote for more than one candidate, a ballot paper shall not be deemed to be void for uncertainty as respects any vote as to which no uncertainty arises and that vote shall be counted.

77. (1) The Returning Officer shall report to the Chief Elections Officer the number of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him under the several heads set out in Regulation 76.

Report regarding rejected ballot papers.

(2) The Returning Officer shall on request allow any candidate or candidates for whom the rejected vote was given, or his agent, to copy the report before it is submitted.

- Decision of Returning Officer to be final. 78. Subject to reversal on petition questioning an election or return, the decision of a Returning Officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final.
- Adjournment of election. 79. In any case where the proceedings at an election are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence at the polling station the Returning Officer may adjourn the further holding of the election at such polling station until the next working day, and so on as often as may be necessary.
- Procedure when two candidates have equal votes. 80. (1) When the ballot papers have been counted, compared and recorded in the manner aforesaid the Returning Officer shall proceed to add up the number of votes given to each candidate, and shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidate or candidates to whom the majority of votes have been given.
- (2) If there is given to two or more candidates an equal number of votes in respect of the seat or the last remaining seat to be filled as the case may be the election as between the candidates with an equal number of votes shall be decided by the drawing of lots.
- Re-count. 81. (1) Any candidate or his agent may at any time during the counting of the votes request the Returning Officer to re-count or again re-count all or any of the ballot papers or to recheck or again recheck any figures recorded by the counting clerks of the Returning Officer, but the Returning Officer may refuse to do so if in his opinion the request is unreasonable.
- (2) The Returning Officer may also at his discretion himself recount, or direct the re-count of votes either once or more often in any case in which he is not satisfied as to the accuracy of any previous count, or may himself recheck, or direct the rechecking of, any figures recorded by the counting clerks or by himself in any case in which he is not satisfied as to the accuracy of such figures:

Provided that nothing herein shall make it obligatory for the Returning Officer to count or cause to be re-counted the same votes more than once or to recheck or cause to be rechecked the same figures more than once.

- (3) If upon an election petition -
- (a) any ballot papers rejected by the Returning Officer are declared valid;
 - (b) any ballot papers rejected in part by the Returning Officer are declared valid as to the part rejected in part or invalid as to the part accepted;
 - (c) any ballot papers counted are rejected as invalid either in whole or in part, the Court may direct the whole or any part of the ballot papers to be re-counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with these Regulations.

(4) Except as in this regulation expressly provided, no re-count shall be had whether on an election petition or otherwise.

82. As soon as possible after the close of the poll, but not later than 6 p.m. of the working day next thereafter, the Returning Officer shall attend at the polling station and shall publicly state the result of the poll and make declaration of the person or persons elected to be a member or members of the Council and shall forthwith make a return thereof to the Chief Elections Officer.

result of poll.

83. The Returning Officer shall, as soon as may be after any election make a return to the Chief Elections Officer, showing the number of persons who appear to have voted, and the number of spoilt ballot papers, and the number of persons to whom voting papers appear to have been supplied.

Return of persons voting.

Voting papers, etc. to be sent under seal to Chief Elections Officer.

84. Each Returning Officer shall, as soon as may be, after making the return in the last preceding regulation mentioned make up into one parcel the voting papers, marked copies of the register of electors and other papers used at the polling stations and in his possession and shall seal the said parcel so that the parcel cannot be opened without breaking the seals. The Returning Officer shall send the parcel containing the voting papers, marked copies of the register of electors and other papers to the Chief Elections Officer who shall keep the parcel sent to him in safe custody and shall allow no person to have access thereto:

Provided that -

- (a) when an election petition has been presented questioning the validity of any election or return the Chief Elections Officer shall, on an order of the Supreme Court, deliver to the proper officer of that court, the papers in his possession relating to the election that is in dispute; and
- (b) after the expiration of twelve months from the date of any election the Chief Elections Officer shall burn the papers used at that election.

Wilful delay in making return.

85. If any Returning Officer wilfully delays, neglects or refuses duly to return any person who ought to be returned to serve on the Council for any town, and if it has been determined on the hearing of an election petition respecting the election for such town that such person was entitled to have been returned the Returning Officer who has so wilfully delayed, neglected or refused duly to make such return of his election shall forfeit to the person aggrieved the sum of five hundred dollars and costs in addition to all damages sustained.

86. Any candidate may himself do, or aid in doing anything which his agent may do under these Regulations and may be present at any place at which his agent may under these Regulations be present. Candidate to have the privileges conferred on his agent.
87. No voter who has voted at any election shall, in any proceeding to question the election, be required to state for whom he has voted. Voter not required to state for whom he voted.

PART VI DISPUTED ELECTIONS

88. The election of a candidate as a member is avoided by his conviction for any corrupt or illegal practice. Avoiding by conviction of candidate.
89. (1) The election of a candidate as a member shall be declared to be void on an election petition on any of the following grounds which may be proved to the satisfaction of the Election Judge, namely: Avoidance of election on election petition.
- (a) that by reason of bribery, treating, intimidation or misconduct, or other circumstances, whether similar to those before enumerated or not, the electors were prevented from electing the candidate whom they preferred;
 - (b) non-compliance with the provisions of these Regulations relating to election if it appears that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in such provisions and that such non-compliance affected the result of the election;
 - (c) that bribery or treating was committed in connection with the election by the candidate or with his knowledge or consent or by any agent of the candidate;

- (d) that the candidate personally engaged a person as his election agent, or as a canvasser or agent, knowing that such person had within seven years previous to such engagement been found guilty of bribery or treating by the Election Judge;
- (e) that the candidate was at the time of his election a person disqualified for election as a member.

(2) No election shall be declared invalid by reason of any act or omission by the Returning Officer or any other person in breach of his official duty in connection with the election or otherwise of the provisions of these Regulations if it appears to the Judge or the Court having cognisance of the question that the election was so conducted as to be substantially in accordance with the law as to elections and that the act or omission did not affect its result.

Appoitment and powers of Election Judge.

90. (1) Every election petition shall be tried by the Chief Justice or by a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Chief Justice for the purpose.

(2) The Chief Justice or the Judge so nominated is in these Regulations referred to as the “Election Judge” or “the Judge”.

(3) For the purposes of summoning or compelling the attendance of witnesses at the trial of an election petition, the Election Judge shall have the same power, jurisdiction, and authority as are possessed and exercised by the Judge of the Supreme Court in the trial of a civil action and witnesses shall be sworn in the same manner, as far as circumstances will admit as in the trial of such an action, and shall be subject to the same penalties for the giving of false evidence.

(4) The Election judge shall be attended on the trial of an election petition in the same manner as if he were a Judge of the Supreme Court.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the Chief Justice, all interlocutory matters in connection with an election petition may be dealt with and decided by any Judge of the Supreme Court.

91. An election petition may be presented to the Supreme Court by any one or more of the following persons, namely - Who may present petition.

- (a) some person who voted or has a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates; or
- (b) some person claiming to have been a candidate at such election.

92. All or any of the following reliefs to which the petitioner may be entitled may be claimed in an election petition, namely - Relief which may be claimed.

- (a) a declaration that the election is void;
- (b) a declaration that the return of any person elected was undue;
- (c) a declaration that any candidate was duly elected and ought to have been returned;
- (d) where the seat is claimed for an unsuccessful candidate on the ground that he had a majority of lawful votes, a scrutiny.

93. (1) A petitioner shall join as respondents to his election petition - Parties to a petition.

- (a) where the petition, in addition to claiming that the election of any returned candidate is void or was undue, claims a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected, all the contesting candidates, other than the petitioner, and where no such further declaration is claimed, the returned candidates; and

- (b) any other candidate or person against whom allegations of any corrupt or illegal practice are made in the petition.

(2) Any candidate not already a respondent to an election petition shall, upon application in that behalf made by him to the Election Judge, be entitled to be joined as a respondent to such petition:

Provided that no candidate shall be entitled to be joined of his own motion as a respondent to such petition under the preceding provisions of this regulation unless he has given such security for costs as the Election Judge may determine.

petition.

94. An election petition -

- (a) shall state the right of the petitioner to petition within these regulations.
- (b) shall state the holding and result of the election;
- (c) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
- (d) shall set forth particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt or illegal practice and the date and place of the commission of such practice, and shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in support of the allegation of such corrupt or illegal practice and the date and place of the commission of such practice;

- (e) shall conclude with a prayer as, for instance, that some specified person should be declared duly returned or elected, or that the election should be declared void, or as the case may be, and shall be signed by all the petitioners:

Provided, however, that nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed or construed to require evidence to be stated in the petition.

95. (1) The Election Judge may, upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he may deem fit, allow the particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice specified in an election petition to be amended or amplified in such manner as may in his opinion be necessary for ensuring a fair or effective trial of the petition, so, however, that he shall not allow such amendment or amplification if it will result in the introduction of particulars of any corrupt or illegal practice not previously alleged in the petition.

Special provisions relating to the procedure before an Election Judge.

(2) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and every endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial of such petition within a period of two months after the date of the presentation of such petition. The Election Judge shall make his order deciding such petition without undue delay after the date of the conclusion of the trial of such petition.

96. At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the Election Judge shall determine whether the member whose return or election is complained of, or any other, and if so which person, was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify such determination in writing under his hand.

Determination of Election Judge.

Such certificate shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar of the Supreme Court to be dealt with as hereinafter provided.

Report of Judge as to corrupt or illegal practice.

97. At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the Election Judge shall also make a report under his hand setting out -

- (a) whether any corrupt or illegal practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at the election, or by his agent, and the nature of such corrupt or illegal practice, if any; and
- (b) the names and descriptions of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice:

Provided, however, that before any person, not being a party to an election petition nor a candidate on behalf of whom the seat is claimed by an election petition, is reported by an Election Judge under this section, the Election Judge shall give such person an opportunity of being heard and of giving and calling evidence to show why he should not be so reported.

Such report shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar of the Supreme Court, to be dealt with as hereinafter provided.

Appeal on question of law against determination under Regulation 96 and any other decision of Election Judge which finally disposes of election petition.

98. (1) An appeal to the Court of Appeal shall lie on any question of law, but not otherwise, against -

- (a) the determination of an Election Judge under Regulation 96; or
- (b) any other decision of an Election Judge which has the effect of finally disposing of an election petition.

(2) Any such appeal may be preferred, either by the petitioner or by the respondent in the election petition, before the expiry of a period of one month next succeeding the date of the determination or decision against which the appeal is preferred.

(3) Notice of the filing of a petition of appeal, accompanied by a copy of the petition, shall, within ten days of the filing thereof be served by the appellant on the other party or each of the other parties to the election petition and on the Attorney General. Such service on a party may be effected in any manner prescribed for the service of the notice and copy of an election petition.

(4) Every appeal under this regulation shall, as far as practicable be given priority over other business of that court. The Court may give all such directions as it may consider necessary in relation to the hearing and disposal of each appeal.

(5) The Attorney General shall be entitled to appear or be represented in any appeal under this regulation.

99. (1) At the time of the filing of a petition of appeal, or within three days afterwards, security for the payment of all costs, charges and expenses that may become payable by the appellant shall be given on behalf of the appellant.

Security by appellant for costs, etc., of appeal.

(2) The security shall be to an amount of six hundred dollars and shall be given by recognisance to be entered into by any number of sureties not exceeding four approved by the Registrar or by deposit of money in the Supreme Court or partly in one way and partly in the other.

(3) If the security as in this regulation provided is not given by the appellant, no further proceedings shall be had on the appeal, and the respondent may apply to the Court of Appeal for an order directing the dismissal of the appeal and for the payments of the respondents' costs. The costs of hearing and deciding such application shall be paid as ordered by the Court of Appeal and in default of such order shall form part of the general costs of the appeal.

(4) The deposit of money by way of security for the payment of the costs, charges and expenses payable by the appellant shall be made by payment to the Registrar of the Supreme Court. A receipt shall be given by the Registrar for the same.

(5) The Registrar shall file a carbon copy of such receipt and keep a book open to the inspection of all parties concerned in which shall be entered from time to time the amount and the appeal to which it is applicable.

(6) The security so deposited shall, if and when the same is no longer needed for securing the payment of the costs, charges and expenses payable by the appellant, be returned or otherwise disposed of as justice may require by order of the Registrar.

(7) Such order may be made after such notice of intention to apply and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the Registrar may require.

(8) Such order may direct payment to the party to whose name the sum is deposited or to any person entitled to receive the same.

Powers of the Court of Appeal.

100. (1) The Court of Appeal may, upon any appeal preferred under Regulation 98 affirm, vary or reverse the determination or decision of the Election Judge to which the appeal relates.

(2) Where the Court of Appeal reverses on appeal the determination of the Election Judge that court shall decide whether the member whose return or election was complained of in the election petition, or any other, and if so which person, was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and a certificate of such decision shall be issued by that court.

(3) The Court of Appeal may, in the case of any appeal under Regulation 98 order that the election petition to which the appeal relates shall be tried anew in its entirety or in regard to any matter specified by that court and give such directions in relation thereto as that court may think fit.

(4) The Court of Appeal may make any order which it may deem just as to the costs of the appeal and as to the costs and incidental to the presentation of the election petition and of the proceedings consequent thereon, and may by such order reverse or vary any order as to costs made by the Election Judge.

(5) The decision of the Court of Appeal on any appeal shall be final and conclusive.

101. (1) Where no appeal is preferred against the determination of an Election Judge under Regulation 98 within the period hereinbefore specified in that behalf, or where in any appeal that is so preferred the Court of Appeal confirms the determination of the Election Judge, the court shall transmit to the Chief Elections Officer the certificate of the Election Judge issued under Regulation 96 together with the report of the Election Judge made under Regulation 97.

Transmission to Chief Elections Officer of Certificate and Report.

(2) Where the determination of the Election Judge is reversed by the Court of Appeal, the court shall transmit to the Chief Elections Officer the certificate of the decision of that court issued under regulation 100 together with -

- (a) the report of the Election Judge made under Regulation 97 if it is in the opinion of the Court of Appeal not affected by the decision in the appeal; or
- (b) if the court considers it necessary, a report in respect of the matters referred to in Regulation 97 made by the court in accordance with the provisions of that regulation.

102. (1) Upon the transmission to the Chief Elections Officer of the certificate of the determination of an Election Judge or of the decision of the report.

certificate and

Court of Appeal as required by Regulation 101 -

- (a) the determination or the decision, as the case may be shall take effect; and
 - (b) the return or the election shall be confirmed or altered; and
 - (c) where the election has been declared void, the Chief Elections Officer shall, within one month of the receipt of the certificate by notice in the Gazette, order the holding of an election in the town concerned, as the case may require, in accordance with such certificate.
- (2) (a) The Chief Elections Officer shall, upon receipt of the report of the Election Judge or of the Court of Appeal transmitted to him under regulation 101 cause a copy of the report to be published in the Gazette.
- (b) (i) Where the report referred to in paragraph (a) is to the effect that a corrupt or illegal practice has been committed by any person, that person shall be subject to the same incapacities as if at the date of the said report he had been convicted of that practice.
 - (ii) Where the report referred to in paragraph (a) is to the effect that such corrupt or illegal practice was committed with the knowledge and consent of a person who was a candidate at an election or by his agent, that person shall be subject to the same incapacities as aforesaid.

(3) It shall be the duty of every registering officer forthwith to peruse every such report which is published in the Gazette as provided in paragraph (2) and forthwith to delete from the register of electors assigned to him the name of every person appearing from the report to be incapable of voting at an election.

103. The Chief Elections Officer shall forthwith notify in writing to every person who is duly elected a member of a Council the fact of his being so elected.

Notification of elected member.

104. (1) Every election petition shall be presented within twenty-one days of the date of publication of the result of the election in the Gazette:

Time for presentation.

Provided that -

- (a) an election petition questioning the return or the election upon the ground of a corrupt practice and specifically alleging a payment of money or other act to have been made or done since the date aforesaid by the member whose election is questioned or by an agent of the member or with the privity of the member or his election agent in pursuance or in furtherance of such corrupt practice may, so far as respects such corrupt practice, be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after the date of such payment or act;
- (b) an election petition questioning the return or the election upon an allegation of an illegal practice may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after the date of such payment or other act if the election petition specifically alleges a payment of money or other act to have been made or done since the said day by the member whose election is questioned or by an agent of the member or of his election agent in pursuance or in furtherance of the illegal practice alleged in the petition.

(2) An election petition presented in due time may, for the purpose of questioning the return or the election upon an allegation of a corrupt or illegal practice, be amended with the leave of a Judge of the Supreme Court within the time within which an election petition questioning the return or the election upon that ground may be presented.

Procedure and practice on election petitions.

105. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section the procedure and practice and practice on election petition shall be regulated by the regulations contained in Part VII of these Regulations.

(2) If any matter of procedure or practice on an election petition shall arise which is not provided for by these Regulations, the procedure or practice followed in England on the same matter shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with these Regulations and is suitable for application to Belize, be followed and shall have effect.

Rejection of ballot paper by Returning Officer to be final.

106. Except on an election petition, the decision of a Returning Officer whether or not a ballot paper shall be rejected or not, shall not be questioned.

Computation of time.

107. (1) In reckoning time for the purposes of these Regulations, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday and any bank holiday shall be excluded.

(2) Where anything required by these Regulations to be done on any day falls to be done on Sunday or on any such excluded day, that thing may be done on the next day, not being one of such excluded days.

General Penalty.

108. Any person who is guilty of an offence under these Regulations for which no penalty has been prescribed shall on summary conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART VII ELECTION PETITIONS

109. (1) The presentation of an election petition shall be made by delivering it at the office of the Registrar, and the Registrar or the officer of his department to whom the petition is delivered shall, if required, give a receipt in the following form:

Manner of presentation of petition.

Received on the day of, 2....., at the Registry of the Supreme Court, a petition touching the election of A.B., Member for (town council) purporting to be signed by (insert the names of petitioners).

C.D.
Registrar
(or as the case may be)

(2) With the petition two copies thereof shall also be left.

110. The following form, or one to the like effect, shall be sufficient -

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BELIZE

(Town Councils) Act/Election for (state the town) held on the day of, 2..... . The petition of A., of, (or of A., of and B., of, as the case may be), whose names are subscribed.

1. Your petitioner A, is a person who voted (or had a right to vote, as the case may be) at the above election (or claim to have had a right to be returned at the above election or was a candidate at the above election) and your petitioner

B (here state in like manner the right of each petitioner).

2. And your petitioners state that the election was held on the day of, 2....., when A.B. C.D. and E. F. (name all candidates) were candidates and the Returning Officer has returned A.B. as being duly elected.

3. And your petitioners say that (here state the facts and grounds on which the petitioners rely).

Wherefore your petitioners pray that it might be determined that the said A.B. was not duly elected or returned, and that the election was void (or that the said E.F. was duly elected and ought to have been returned, or as the case may be).

(Signed A.
B.

Where more than one petition is presented in relation to same elections.

111. Where more petitions than one are presented relating to the same election or return, all such petitions shall be dealt with as one petition, so far as the inquiry into the same is concerned.

List of votes objected to where seat claimed by an unsuccessful candidate.

112. (1) When a petitioner claims that seat for an unsuccessful candidate, alleging that he had a majority of lawful votes, the party complaining of the election or return and the party defending the election or return shall, six days before the day appointed for trial, deliver to the Registrar, and also at the address, if any, given by the petitioner and respondents, as the case may be, a list of the votes intended to be objected to, and of the heads of objection to each such vote, and the Registrar shall allow inspection and office copies of such list to all parties concerned.

(2) No evidence shall be given against the validity of any vote, nor upon any head of objection not specified in the list, except by leave of the Judge, upon such terms as to amendment of the list, postponement of the inquiry, and payment of costs, as may be ordered.

113. The respondents in a petition complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat for some other person may lead evidence to prove that the election of such other person was undue and in such case such respondent shall, six days before the day appointed for trial, deliver to the Registrar, and at also the address, if any, given by the petitioner, a list of the objections to the election upon which he intends to rely, and the Registrar shall allow inspection of office copies of such list to all parties concerned and no evidence shall be given by a respondent of any objection to the election not specified in the list, except by leave of the Judge, upon such terms as to amendment of the list, postponement of the inquiry, and payment of costs, as may be ordered.

List of objections in recriminatory case.

114. With the petition the petitioner shall leave at the office of the Registrar a notice in writing, signed by him, giving the name of some person entitled to practise as an Attorney-at-Law of the Supreme Court whom he authorises to act as his agent or stating that he acts for himself as the case may be, and in either case giving an address within Belize City at which notices may be left; and if no such notice in writing be left or address given, then all notice may be given by leaving the same at the office of the Registrar. Every such notice in writing shall be stamped with the duty payable thereon under the law for the time being in force.

Appointment of agent by petitioner.

115. Any person returned as a member may at any time, after he is returned, send or leave at the office of the Registrar a notice in writing, signed by him or on his behalf appointing a person entitled to practise as an Attorney-at-Law of the Supreme Court to act as his agent in case there should be a petition against him, or stating that he intends to act for himself, and in either case giving an address within the city of Belize at which notices addressed to him may be left, and if no such notice in writing be left or address given, all notices and proceedings may be given or served by leaving the same at the office of the Registrar.

Appointment of agent by respondent.

Registrar to keep book with addresses and names of agents.

116. The Registrar shall cause to be kept a book at his office in which shall be entered all addresses and the names of agents given under either of the two last preceding regulations, which book shall be open to inspection by any person during his office hours.

Security by petitioner for costs etc., of election petition.

117. If security as is required by these Regulations is not given by the petitioner, no further proceedings shall be had on the petition and the respondent may apply to the Judge for an order directing the dismissal of the petition and for the payment of the respondents' costs. The costs of hearing and deciding such application shall be paid as ordered by the Judge and in default of such order shall form a part of the general costs of the petition.

Service of notice of petition and copy of petition on the respondent.

118. (1) Notice of the presentation of a petition, accompanied by a copy thereof shall, within ten days of the presentation of the petition -

(a) be served by the petitioner on the respondent; or

(b) be delivered at the office of the Registrar for service on the respondent, and the Registrar or the officer of his department to whom such notice and copy is delivered shall, if required, give a receipt in such form as may be approved by the Chief Justice.

(2) The service under paragraph (1) of notice of the presentation of a petition and a copy thereof by the petitioner on the respondent may be effected either by delivering such notice and copy to the agent appointed under regulation 115 or by posting them in a registered letter to the address given under regulation 115 at such time that, in the ordinary course of post the letter would be delivered within the time above mentioned, or by a notice published in the Gazette stating that such petition has been presented and that a copy of it may be obtained by the respondent on application at the office of the Registrar.

(3) Where notice of the presentation of a petition, accompanied by a copy thereof is delivered under paragraph (1) at the office of the Registrar for service on the respondent, such service may be effected in the same manner as the service of a notice issued by a court of civil jurisdiction.

119. The Registrar shall make out the election petition list. In it he shall insert the names of the agents of the petitioners and respondents appointed under Regulations 114 and 115 respectively, and the addresses to which notices may be sent, if any. The list may be inspected at the office of the Registrar at any time during office hours, and shall be affixed for that purpose upon a notice board.

List of petitions.

120. The time and place of the trial of each election petition shall be fixed by the Judge, and not less than fourteen days' notice thereof shall be given to the petitioner and respondent by letter directed to the address left by such petitioner or respondent with the Registrar or, if no such address has been left, by notice in the Gazette.

Time and place of trial of petition.

121. The Judge may from time to time, by order made on the application of a party to the petition, postpone the beginning of the trial to such day as he may name; and such order, when made, shall forthwith be published by the Registrar in the Gazette.

Postponement of trial.

122. No formal adjournment of the court for the trial of an election petition shall be necessary but the trial is to be deemed adjourned, and may be continued from day to day until the inquiry is concluded; and in the event of the Judge who begins the trial being disabled by illness or otherwise, it may be recommended and concluded by another Judge.

Adjournment and continuation of trial.

123. (1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the Judge; and such leave may be given upon such terms as to the payment of costs and otherwise as the Judge may think fit.

Withdrawal of election petition.

(2) Before leave for the withdrawal of an election petition is granted, there shall be produced affidavits as required by this regulation by all the parties to the petition and their Attorneys-at-Law, and by the election agents of all the said parties who were candidates at the election; but a Judge of the Supreme Court may on cause shown dispense with the affidavit of any particular person if it seems to the Judge on special grounds to be just so to do.

(3) Each affidavit shall state that, to the best of the deponent’s knowledge and belief, no unlawful agreement or terms of any kind whatsoever has or have been made, and no unlawful undertaking has been entered into in relation to the withdrawal of the petition; but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement, and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

(4) The affidavits of the applicant and his Attorney-at-Law shall further state the ground on which the petition is sought to be withdrawn.

Form of application to withdraw petition.

124. (1) An application for leave to withdraw a petition shall be in writing signed by the petitioner or petitioners or his or their agent or agents. It shall state the ground on which the application is supported.

(2) The following form shall be sufficient:

(Town Councils Act)

Town petition of (state name of petitioner presented) the day of, 2 The petitioner applies to withdraw his petition upon the following ground (here state the ground), and prays that a day may be appointed for hearing his application.

Dated this day of, 2

(Signed)

(3) The application for leave to withdraw shall be left at the office of the Registrar.

125. A copy of such application shall be given by the petitioner to the respondent, and a notice in the following terms signed by the petitioner shall be published forthwith in the Gazette by the petitioner at his own expense:

Copy of application to be given to respondent.

(Town Councils Act)

The election petition for in which is petitioner and respondent.

Notice is hereby given that the above petitioner did on the day of, lodge at the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court an application for leave to withdraw the petition, of which application the following is a copy:

(set it out)

And take notice that under “Town Councils (Registration of Electors and Elections) Regulations” any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the said election may within five days after the date of publication of this notice, give notice in writing to the Registrar of the Supreme Court of his intention on the hearing of the application to be substituted as a petitioner.

(Signed)

126. Any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may, within five days after a notice under regulation 125 is published by the petitioner give notice in writing, signed by him or on his behalf, to the Registrar, of his intention to apply at the hearing to be substituted for the petitioner, but the want of such notice shall not defeat such application, if in fact made at the hearing.

Application to be substituted as petitioner, on withdrawl.

127. The time and place of hearing the application shall be fixed by the Judge but shall not be less than a week after the application for leave to withdraw has been left at the office of the Registrar as hereinbefore provided, and notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing shall be given to such person or persons, if any, as shall have been given notice to the Registrar of an intention to apply to be substituted as petitioners, and otherwise in such manner and such time as the judge directs.

Time and place of hearing of application.

another petitioner.

128. (1) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates, may apply to the judge to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner so desirous of withdrawing the petition.

(2) The Judge may, if he thinks fit, substitute as a petitioner any such applicant as aforesaid; and may further, if the proposed withdrawal is in the opinion of the Judge induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that to the extent of the sum named in such security the original petitioner shall be liable to pay costs of the substituted petitioner.

(3) If no such order is made with respect to the security given on behalf of the original petitioner, security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition, and within three days after the order of substitution.

(4) Subject as aforesaid a substituted petitioner shall stand in the same position as nearly as may be, and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

(5) If a petition is withdrawn, the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

(6) Where there are more petitioners than one, no application to withdraw a petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

129. Any election petition shall not be abated by reason only of a dissolution of the Town Council and accordingly in the event of such dissolution such petition shall be heard or continue to be heard, and determined as though the Town Council had not been dissolved but was in session. Non-abatement of election petition by reason only of a dissolution of Town Council.
130. (1) An election petition shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners. Abatement of petition by death.
- (2) The abatement of a petition shall not affect the liability of the petitioner or of any other person to the payment of costs previously incurred.
131. (1) Notice of abatement of a petition by the death of the petitioner or surviving petitioner, shall be given by any party or person interested in the same manner as a notice is given of an application to withdraw a petition, and the time within which application may be made to a Judge to be substituted as a petitioner shall be one calendar month, or such further time as upon consideration of any special circumstances the Judge may allow. Application to be substituted as petitioner on abatement.
- (2) Any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the Judge to be substituted as a petitioner.
- (3) The Judge, may, if he thinks fit, substitute as a petitioner any such applicant who is desirous of being substituted and on whose behalf security to the same amount is given as required in the case of a new petition.
132. (1) If before the trial of an election petition a respondent dies or resigns, or given notice in writing to the court that he does not intend to oppose the petition the petition shall not be abated but shall continue whether or not any person applies to be admitted as respondent as hereinafter provided. On death, resignation or notice not to oppose of respondent the petition to continue.
- (2) Notice of the fact that a respondent has died or resigned or that he has given notice in writing that he does not intend to oppose the petition, shall be published in the Gazette by the Registrar.

(3) Any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition relates may apply to the judge to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition within ten days after such notice has been published in the Gazette or such further time as the judge may allow.

(4) The manner and time of the respondent's giving notice to the court that he does not intend to oppose the petition, shall be by leaving notice thereof in writing at the office of the Registrar, signed by the respondent not less than six days before the day appointed for trial, exclusive of the day of leaving such notice.

Respondent not opposing petition not to appear as party.

133. A respondent who has given notice of his intention not to oppose a petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against such petition in any proceedings thereon.

Countermanding notice of trial where petition abated, etc.

134. After receiving the petitioner's application for leave to withdraw or notice of the respondent's intention not to oppose or of the abatement of the petition by death, if such notice be received after notice of trial shall have been given, and before the trial has commenced, the Registrar shall forthwith countermand the notice of trial. The countermand shall be given in the same manner, as near as may be, as the notice of trial.

Costs.

135. All costs of and incidental to the presentation of a petition and to the proceedings consequent thereon shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Judge may determine, regard being had to the disallowance of any costs which may, in the opinion of the Judge, have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections, on the part of either the petitioner or the respondent and regard being had to the discouragement of any needless expense by throwing the burden of defraying the same on the parties by whom it has been caused, whether such parties are or are not on the whole successful.

Taxation and recovery of costs.

136. (1) Costs shall be taxed by the Registrar upon the order by which the costs are payable in such manner as shall be specified in such order; and costs when taxed may be recovered in the same manner as the costs of an action at law.

(2) The Chief Justice may direct that the whole or any part of any monies deposited by way of security under the provisions of these Regulations may be applied in the payment of taxed costs.

(3) The office fees payable for inspection, office copies and other proceedings under these Regulations shall be such as may be prescribed by the Chief Justice.

137. Any person who is on the roll of Attorneys-at-Law of the Supreme Court may act as agent for any party to an election petition.

Attorney-at-Law may act as agent under these Regulations.

138. An agent shall, immediately upon his appointment as such, leave written notice thereof at the office of the Registrar.

Notice of appointment of agent.

139. Service of notices and proceedings upon such agents shall be sufficient for all purposes.

Service of notices on agents.

TOWN COUNCILS (STANDING ORDERS) REGULATIONS
(Sections 19 and 63)

36 of 1966.
30 of 1985.
Ch. 67.

[4th June, 1966.]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Short title.

TOWN COUNCILS (STANDING ORDERS) REGULATIONS.

2. The procedure at all meetings of Town Councils shall be in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations. Procedure.

- 2A. At the first meeting of every Town Council after the inaugural meeting following a general election or by-election for members of the Council, or as soon as may be convenient thereafter, every new member of the Council shall take and subscribe to an Oath of Office in the following form: Oath of office.
30 of 1985.

“I A.B. being duly elected as a member of the Town Council do solemnly swear that I shall at all times, to the best of my ability exercise the powers and perform the duties of my office in the best interests of the residents of Town, in accordance with the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of Belize and of Town, So help Me God.”

The Oath of Office shall be administered to each member by the Town Administrator who shall keep and maintain a Register of Oaths for the purpose of swearing in members of the Town Council. Every member shall subscribe his name to the Oath sworn by him and the same shall be countersigned and dated by the Town Administrator. For the purpose of this Rule, Oath includes an affirmation.

3. The chair at every meeting shall be taken by the Mayor or, in his absence, Chairman.

by the Deputy Mayor. In the absence of both Mayor and Deputy Mayor the chair shall be taken by a member of the Council elected by the members of the Council present at the meeting.

- Notice of meetings. 4. (1) Notice of each meeting of a Town Council shall be given by the Town Administrator in writing to each member at least 72 hours before the time of the meeting, except in case of urgency when as long notice as possible shall be given.
- (2) The Town Administrator shall also send to each member, at least seventy-two hours before every meeting, a copy of the Agenda, together with a copy of every motion of which notice has been duly given to be moved thereat, except in case of urgency when it shall be sent as long before the meeting as possible.
- Quorum. 5. No business other than that of adjournment shall be transacted unless a quorum be present.
- Lack of quorum. 6. If at the expiration of 15 minutes after the time at which any meeting of the Council is appointed to be held a quorum shall not be present, the meeting shall not be held but shall stand adjourned until such day and time as it be fixed by the Mayor or, in his absence, the Deputy Mayor.
- Order of transaction of business. 7. The business at each meeting of the Council shall be transacted in the following order:
- (a) Confirmation of Minutes.
 - (b) Announcements.
 - (c) Notices.
 - (d) Petitions.

- (e) Questions.
- (f) Financial Statement.
- (g) Report of Committees.
- (h) Correspondence.
- (i) The ordinary business of the Council.
- (j) Any urgent business brought before the Council with the leave of the Mayor.
- (k) Resolutions of which due notice have been given or which are brought before the Council with the leave of the Mayor.

8. No resolution other than one for the adjournment of the meeting shall be moved unless it relates to the ordinary business of the Council, or unless due notice thereof shall have been given, or unless it is moved with the leave of the Mayor. Resolutions.

9. A motion for the adjournment of any meeting of the Council or for the suspension of standing rules and orders may be made at any time and shall be immediately decided. Adjournment.

10. Notices of resolutions relating to matters other than the ordinary business of a Council shall be given at the previous meeting of the Council. The intending mover of the resolution shall hand the resolution in writing to the Town Administrator at least four days before such meeting. Notices.

11. With the exception of resolutions relating to the ordinary business of a Council of which are moved by or with the leave of the Mayor, every resolution shall be brought before, and dealt with by, the Council in the manner hereinafter Manner of dealing with resolutions.

Moving resolution. 12. The Town Administrator shall read the resolution and shall name the member who is about to move the same. Thereafter the Mayor shall ask whether any member is willing to second such resolution. If no member seconds the resolution, the same shall be considered as lost and shall be so entered on the minutes. If any member is willing to second the resolution, his name shall be recorded by the Town Administrator as the seconder of the resolution. Thereafter the Town Administrator shall call on the mover of the resolution to address the meeting in support of his resolution, and the debate on the resolution shall continue until, in the opinion of the Mayor, the subject matter has been adequately discussed. The Council shall thereupon proceed to vote for or against the resolution and the Town Administrator shall in due course record the result of such vote.

Amending resolutions. 13. If any amendment is moved to any resolution (whether relating to the ordinary business of a Council or otherwise), the mover of such amendment shall hand his amendment in writing to the Town Administrator. No amendment shall be allowed unless it forms with the resolution (either by addition or subtraction of words or both) one or more complete, intelligible and consecutive sentences. The Town Administrator, upon receiving such written amendment, shall forthwith hand the same to the Mayor who shall at the conclusion of the remarks of the member then addressing the Council, or at any earlier suitable opportunity, read the amendment to the Council and the Mayor shall ask whether any member seconds the same. If no member seconds the amendment, the amendment shall be considered as lost and shall be so recorded by the Town Administrator.

Question to be put. 14. If any amendment so read is duly seconded, the Mayor shall put the question to the Council whether -

(a) the words added by the amendment shall stand part of the resolution; or

- (b) whether the resolution shall be altered by the subtraction (or as the case may be, by the addition, or both) of the words as suggested by the amendment.

15. The question thus put to the Council shall be duly debated as prescribed by Regulation 12 and a vote thereon shall be taken. If the question be decided in the negative and if no further amendment be moved, the original resolution shall be submitted for debate by the Council and voted upon in the manner prescribed. If the Council vote the affirmative upon the question so put by the Mayor, he shall then declare that the main question for the decision of the Council is the original resolution as altered by the amendment and thereupon the debate upon the resolution as altered by the amendment shall be opened by the mover of the amendment, and, after adequate discussion as provided by Regulation 12, the Council shall vote thereon and their vote shall be duly recorded by the Town Administrator. Debate.

16. If any amendment be moved to an amendment, the first shall be treated as an original resolution and the debate shall proceed in the manner above described. Amendments.

17. (1) The mover of an original resolution shall not be limited in the duration of his speech on such resolution or in reply. Time limits.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of this Regulation a member shall not be entitled to address the Council for more than thirty minutes on any subject:

Provided that the Council may, by motion made and carried without amendment or debate which motion shall set out the extension, extend the time limited by this Regulation.

(3) The ruling of the Mayor as to the time taken by any member shall be final.

- Closing debate. 18. The mover of a resolution or amendment shall be entitled to close the debate. No member of a Council shall be permitted to speak twice on the same resolution or amendment, but a member who has spoken may be again heard provided it is to clear up any misunderstanding in regard to some material part of his speech. In no case, however, shall such member be allowed to introduce new matter into the debate under cover of making a personal explanation.
- Lost resolution. 19. When any resolution brought before a Council shall have been discussed and lost, it shall not be again brought up for consideration until the expiration of three months thereafter.
- Withdrawing a resolution. 20. Resolutions and amendments may be withdrawn upon leave being given by the unanimous consent of a Council.
- Priority of speakers. 21. When two or more members rise to speak, the Mayor shall call upon the member who first rose and the Mayor's decision as to such priority shall be final.
- Manner of voting. 22. The members shall normally vote by a show of hands but if any member requests that the vote shall be by secret ballot, voting shall then be in such manner. The Mayor shall have an original vote and, if the votes be equally divided, a second or casting vote.
- Act of disorder. 23. Any member who, having been called to order by the Mayor for any act of disorder, shall commit a further act of disorder, shall upon the request of the Mayor, withdraw from the meeting for the remainder of the sitting.
- Adjournment. 24. If disorder shall arise at any meeting the Mayor may adjourn the meeting for a period of fifteen minutes and quit the chair. The meeting on reassembling shall on question put from the chair decide without debate whether the business shall be proceeded with or not.
- Strangers. 25. (1) Strangers may be admitted to meetings of the Council on condition that they preserve absolute silence. Reporters of the Press may be provided with accommodation and will be subject to all rules applicable to strangers.

(2) The Mayor may at any time order strangers or any particular stranger to withdraw from the Council Room.

26. (1) The Town Administrator shall keep a full and exact journal of the proceedings of the Council and at each meeting of the said Council the minutes of the last meeting shall be read over, confirmed or amended as the circumstances may require, before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, unless otherwise allowed by the unanimous consent of the Council under special circumstances. Journal of proceedings.

(2) The Mayor shall forward to the Minister as soon as may be possible after each meeting of the Council a copy of the minutes of its proceedings without awaiting its confirmation.

27. Petitions addressed to the Council, properly couched and relating to matters within the province of the Council, may be sent to the Town Administrator or may be presented by any member. Petitions.

28. The Financial Statement which shall be presented to the Council by the Town Administrator in accordance with sub-paragraph (b) of Regulation 7 shall include - Financial statement.

(a) the balances of all funds held by the Council at the end of the last preceding month;

(b) a statement of all amounts owing by the Council at the same date;

(c) the amount of arrears due to the Council on that date; and

(d) any other financial information desired by the Council.

- Voting procedure. 29. A question arising at a meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting on that question, and, in case of an equality of votes the Mayor, but not anyone acting in his place, shall have a second or casting vote.
- Functions of committee. 30. The general functions of a committee shall be the conduct of a careful and minute enquiry into such question or matter as may be referred to it through the consideration of papers and the drafting and submission of a document or report thereon.
- Mode of conducting enquires. 31. The mode of conducting its enquiries may be prescribed by the Council at the time of appointment.
- Reports. 32. The report of its findings or a document accompanied, if need be, by observations thereon or resolutions based by the committee on the papers laid before them, shall form the conclusion of the labours, of a committee and closes its existence.
- Standing committees. 33. Standing committees of the Council shall make a report of their activities at each regular meeting, of the Council.
- Documents and records. 34. The Town Administrator shall have the custody of all documents, records and the common seal of the Council and he shall deliver all or any of them up to the Mayor when directed.
- Documents to be securely kept. 35. Neither the Town Administrator nor any member of the Council shall without lawful cause or consent show to any person other than a member or other duly authorised person or remove from the Council's offices any document, record or book belonging to the Council. The common seal shall be kept in the offices of the Council and kept securely locked away when not in use.

36. Except where otherwise provided by law the common seal shall not be impressed on any document or paper whatsoever without an express order of the Council: Common seal.

Provided that any authority given to the Mayor to enter into an agreement or contract on behalf of the Council shall be deemed to carry with it an order to affix the common seal to such agreement or contract.

37. Every document to which the common seal is hereafter affirmed by order of the Council shall be signed by the Mayor and counter signed by the Town Administrator and the form of attestation shall be as follows: Affixing of seal.

“In pursuance of an order of the Town Council of, made on the the common seal was hereunto affixed by Mayor.

Town Administrator of Town.

38. The Mayor shall have control of all officers and employees of the Council and forthwith upon the passing of any resolution or the adoption of any minutes or report he shall have authority to give effect thereto unless the Council otherwise determine. Powers of Mayor.

39. The Mayor may at any time suspend from office any officer who in his opinion is guilty of misconduct or neglect and may temporarily appoint another person in his place. The Mayor shall report the matter at the next meeting of the Council. Suspension of officers.

40. All complaints against employees of the Council must be in writing and in every case be signed by the person or persons complaining and no notice whatsoever shall be taken of any complaint not so made. Complaints may be addressed to the Mayor who, upon receipt thereof, shall have power to investigate the same and he shall report thereon to the Council at the next meeting. Complaints against employees.

Slaughter House

|---------------------------------------|---|
| Slaughter for human consumption. | 28. Except in the case of wild animals which may be shot in the bush, no person shall kill or slaughter any animal or turtle the flesh of which is intended for human food in any place within, or within one mile beyond, the limits of the town of Benque Viejo del Carmen other than in the Slaughter House. |
| Hours of opening. | 29. The Slaughter House shall be opened daily (Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day excepted) from 3.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sundays it may be opened at the discretion of the Council between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. for the purpose of slaughtering. |
| Licence required. | 30. No person shall be allowed to kill or slaughter any animal in the Slaughter House unless such person holds a licence from the Council as in these By-Laws provided. |
| Application for and grant of licence. | 31. (1) Any person applying for a licence as a butcher shall produce to the Town Administrator a certificate from the Clerk of the Slaughter House to the effect that the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and at least one member of the Council his ability to be a butcher, and also a food handler's certificate: |

Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the certificate of ability in the case of any application for renewal of licence.

Upon the production of the aforementioned certificates and on payment of three dollars the Town Administrator shall grant such licence to the applicant.

- (2) Butcher's assistants must each possess a valid licence, to be issued by the Town Administrator on payment of one dollar and fifty cents and the production of a food handler's certificate. Persons employed as carriers for the sole purpose of transporting meat from the Slaughter House to the Market and not in any way employed in the Slaughter House or Market shall not be required to obtain butcher's assistant's licences but shall possess a food handler's certificate.

(3) The possessor of a butcher's assistant's licence shall not be entitled to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but may vend meat in the Market. A licensed butcher's assistant or apprentice may on payment of an additional fee of twenty-five cents obtain a licence to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but only under the control and supervision of a licensed butcher. Such additional licences shall expire on 30th June if issued during the first half of a year and 31st December if issued during the second half of a year. An additional licence shall not be issued to the same person more than twice except with the written permission of the Council issued after consideration of the merits and grounds of the application.

(4) All butcher's and butcher's assistant's licences, other than additional licences, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued and shall not be transferable.

(5) Any person who employs in or brings a person under the age of fourteen years into the Slaughter House or its yard whilst slaughtering is in progress shall commit an offence against these By-Laws. It shall be an offence for any person under the age of fourteen years to enter the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress.

Young persons.

32. Every butcher and butcher's assistant shall possess a food handler's certificate, and when handling meat shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap as approved by the Medical Officer.

Cleanliness, etc.

33. Any licensed butcher or butcher's assistant who -

Cancellation or suspension of licence.

- (a) in the opinion of the Council has ill-treated or used unnecessary cruelty to an animal while being slaughtered or has ill-treated an animal intended for slaughter;
- (b) neglects or refuses to provide an animal with an adequate supply of drinking water while enclosed or secured in the Slaughter House yard or other place appointed by the Council preparatory to slaughter by him;
- (c) is guilty of uncleanness, non-compliance with these By-Laws, or disorderly, obstructive, mischievous, or unseemly behaviour in or at the Market or Slaughter House or in the yards or precincts thereof;
- (d) neglects or refuses to obtain a food handler's certificate or to renew it when it expires, or fails or refuses to produce such certificate when so requested by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, Clerk of the Market, Town Administrator, medical officer, veterinary officer, or health officer, shall be liable at the discretion of the Council to have his licence suspended for such period as the Council may think fit, or cancelled, in addition to any other penalty he may incur under these By-Laws, the Public Health Regulations and any other laws. A butcher whose licence has been suspended or cancelled shall not operate as a butcher's assistant except with the consent of the Council. A butcher's assistant whose licence has been suspended or cancelled shall be debarred from operating in the Slaughter House or at a meat stall in the Market. In case of suspension or cancellation of a licence no part of the fees shall be refunded unless the Council by resolution shall so direct.

34. A register of all licensed butchers and butcher's assistants shall be kept in the office of the Council and shall be open to inspection by a medical officer or health officer, and to the Council and its staff. Register.
35. Animals intended for slaughter shall be tied up at the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council for a period of not less than twelve hours or more than forty-eight hours before slaughter. The person tying up such animal at the Slaughter House or appointed place or his agent shall immediately notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House and the period shall be deemed to commence from the hour of such notification provided the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall on investigation find that the animal has indeed been so secured. If notification is made between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. a personal fee of fifty cents shall be paid to the Clerk of the Slaughter House at the time of notification, if this fee is not paid he shall not be required to accept the notification. Animals that have completed the minimum period of twelve hours at the stake may be presented to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for approval for slaughter between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. or on the opening of the Slaughter House in the morning. Persons bringing animals to the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council must see that such animals are properly tied up, and the Council shall not be responsible for the loss of, or damage to any animal tied up in the appointed places. On the expiry of forty-eight hours at the stake the animal must either be slaughtered in the Slaughter House or removed from the Slaughter House yard or other appointed place; an animal so removed shall not be presented again under forty-eight hours from the time of its removal. During the time an animal is secured at the appointed place the person who is tendering the animal for examination and slaughter or the butcher who intends to slaughter the animal shall provide it with an adequate supply of good drinking water, and failure or neglect to do so shall be an offence against these By-Laws. Tying up animals.
36. Animals intended for slaughter shall be weighed on the weighbridge established for such purpose on the Market premises and it shall be incumbent on persons in charge of such animals, to notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House when such animals shall be weighed, and a register of weights shall be kept by the Clerk of the Slaughter House for the purpose of recording the weights of Weighing animals.

such animals and the Town Administrator is required from time to time to inspect the said register to ensure that it is properly kept.

Examination of animal and meat.

37. The Clerk of the Slaughter-House shall examine the condition of all animals brought to be slaughtered and of meat thereof intended to be offered for sale and if any such animal or meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness he shall notify the owner thereof and unless and until such animal or meat shall have been approved by a medical officer such animal shall not be slaughtered nor shall such meat be offered for sale or sold.

Cleaning premises, etc.

38. Any person using the Slaughter House for killing any animal shall immediately after slaughtering such animal thoroughly wash and clean the flooring, tables or other parts of the main building or other erection used and soiled by such killing.

Cleaning and dressing meat.

39. All meat shall be properly cleaned and dressed before leaving the Slaughter House and shall be covered with cloth to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and kept so covered while being conveyed from the Slaughter House to the Market.

Entry prohibited.

40. No person shall enter the Slaughter House premises or compound except on business. An unauthorised person shall immediately leave the Slaughter House or its yard when requested to do so by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, the Town Administrator, a medical officer, health officer, veterinary officer, a member of the Council or a member of the police department.

No dogs allowed.

41. No dogs shall be allowed in the Slaughter House or the yard thereof. If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be considered to have committed an offence against these By-Laws.

Nuisances, etc.

42. No person shall loiter, smoke, spit, or commit any nuisance, insanitary act or act of annoyance, obstruction or mischief or any breach of the peace or unlawful act within the Slaughter House or its precincts.

43. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for rubbish and refuse no rubbish or refuse from the Slaughter House shall be deposited elsewhere than in such receptacles. Rubbish.
44. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall attend at the Slaughter House as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management thereof. Attendance of Clerk.
45. In the event of a captive bolt pistol, humane killer or other mechanical killing device being provided by the Council its use on the types of animals for which it is designed shall be obligatory. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall be responsible for maintaining the device in clean and proper working condition and for seeing that it is not used or handled in a manner dangerous to persons, property or the device. He may either operate the device himself, in which case the butcher whose animal he is about to kill shall afford him every assistance, or he may, at his discretion and responsibility, permit a licensed butcher or butcher's assistant to operate it. Any butcher or butcher's assistant who uses the device in a manner contrary to the instructions of the Clerk of the Slaughter House or that may cause, or causes, injury or damage to persons or property or the device, or who uses the device without the permission of the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall commit an offence against these By-Laws and, irrespective of any other penalty or penalties that may be lawfully incurred, shall pay for or otherwise make good any damage done to the Council's property or the loss the Council may suffer in consequence of his actions. Humane killer.
46. The fees specified in the Second Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for all animals killed or dressed at the Slaughter House. Fees.
Second Schedule.
47. All meat on which the fees are charged according to weight shall be weighed by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and according to his directions. The weight of all meat except turtle shall be ascertained after the carcass has been dressed. The weight of turtle shall be ascertained before its slaughter. Weighing of meat.

Penalty.

48. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the preceding By-Laws relating to the Slaughter House shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

3. No fresh meat of cattle, swine, goat or sheep shall be sold in the town of Corozal (or within a mile thereof) unless it shall have been first slaughtered at the Slaughter House according to its rules and regulations and exposed for sale at the Market:

Provided always that should any necessity arise whereby it is considered necessary or desirable that such meat from outside the town of Corozal should be allowed to be sold locally then it shall be first passed by the Medical Officer of Health, and then exposed for sale in the Market by a licensed butcher, and subject to the payment of Slaughter House and Market fees as if the animal had been slaughtered at the Slaughter House.

Stalls.

4. The Market shall be fitted with stalls which shall be numbered with distinguishing numbers and shall be appropriated for the sale of meat, turtle, fish, fruit, vegetables, groceries, bread, confectionery and such other articles as the Council may determine and may be let by the day at the rate specified in

- the First Schedule to these By-Laws to persons or firms approved by the Clerk of the Market subject to these By-Laws. First Schedule.
5. No person or firm shall, except by permission granted by resolution of the Council, directly or indirectly hold more than one stall in the Market or sublet the same to another person or firm. Stalls shall be rented only to those who occupy them personally or by an agent on their behalf who does not rent or manage any other stall in the Market. One stall per person.
6. Persons renting or occupying any market stall shall keep the same, together with the fixtures, fittings and appurtenances thereto, clean and in proper order and shall be responsible for any damage to the same other than by fair wear and tear and shall not without permission in writing from the Town Administrator affix extra fixtures or lights and shall not leave any food material in or on it in any way whatever. Meat stalls may be opened daily (Sunday excepted) at 5.30 a.m. and may be closed as soon as all the meat being exposed thereon shall have been sold or otherwise disposed of. On Saturdays meat stalls may be re-opened at 2 p.m. Hours of opening.
10. All stalls may be opened at 5.30 a.m. daily (Sundays excepted) and shall be closed at 6 p.m. Hours of business.
11. On all public holidays the Market shall be closed for all purposes whatsoever at 11 a.m. Public holidays.

- Livestock. 12. No livestock except poultry or game shall be brought into the Market.
- Examination of meat. 13. All meat brought into the Market for sale (other than meat which has been previously examined at the Slaughter House) shall forthwith be submitted for examination, and shall be examined, by the Clerk of the Market.
- Suspected meat. 14. If on examination as in the preceding By-Law mentioned any meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness, the Clerk of the Market shall notify the owner thereof and unless and until such meat shall have been approved by a medical officer of health such meat shall not be offered for sale.
- Unwholesome food, etc. 15. (1) No person shall expose for sale, or have in his or her possession in the Market any bad or unwholesome meat, fish, fruit or vegetables and any such found may be dealt with under the Public Health Act.
- CAP. 41. (2) All meat not sold by 6 p.m. must be removed from the Market.
- (3) No meat left over from the previous day shall be sold on the stalls, except that, when an overdue amount of meat is likely to be left over, the permission of the Sanitary Authority through the Clerk of the Market shall be obtained to keep it on ice. Such permission will only be granted in exceptional cases, and where such permission has been granted, the meat so kept shall be sold as "Frozen Meat" as referred to in By-law 26 (iv) of these By-Laws.
- (4) In the event of the possibility of an undue amount of fresh meat remaining unsold, it shall be permissible for the butcher to salt and corn such meat provided such salting and corning shall be done before 12 noon. Each day such meat shall be removed from the stalls to the room provided for the purpose where it shall be kept and such corned meat shall only be brought into the stalls for weighing and selling.
- Dogs prohibited. 16. No dogs shall be allowed in the Market. If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be deemed to have committed an offence against these By-Laws.

26. Any person who shall at any stall in the Market sell or offer for sale -

- (a) any part of a loggerhead turtle at the same time and at the same stall at which he is selling or offering or exposing for sale any part of a greenturtle; or
- (b) any part of a turtle unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of turtle offered for sale, namely, greenturtle, hawksbill, or loggerhead; or
- (c) any part of a sheep or goat unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of mutton offered for sale, namely, sheep mutton or goat mutton; or
- (d) any meat that has been frozen unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall containing the words, "Frozen Meat", shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

Fees.
Weighing meat.

27. The fees specified in the First Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Market for sale except where such fees have already been paid at the Slaughter House. The weighing of such meat and turtle where necessary shall be done by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Market and according to his directions.

Penalty.

28. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the foregoing By-Laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and in the event of a continuing offence to a further penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day on which such offence is continued. The tenancy of such person as a lessee or stall-holder may be forthwith determined by the Council and no part of the rent paid shall be refunded unless the Council by resolution shall so direct; and if the Council so determine any tenancy as aforesaid, it may declare such lessee or stall-holder to be disqualified from holding any stall for such period as the Council may determine not exceeding six months.

Slaughter House

29. Except in the case of wild animals which may be shot in the bush, no person shall kill or slaughter any animal or turtle the flesh of which is intended for human food in any place within one mile beyond the limits of the town of Corozal other than in the Slaughter House. Place for slaughter.

30. The Slaughter House shall be opened on Saturdays from 4 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on every other day of the week (except Sunday) from 4 a.m. to 2 p.m. No animals shall be slaughtered after 4 p.m. on Saturdays or 2 p.m. on any other day of the week. COROZAL TOWN (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS
(Sections 50 and 63)

- Short title. 1. These By-Laws may for all purposes be cited as the
- COROZAL TOWN (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS.
- Interpretation. 2. In these By-Laws if not inconsistent with the context the following words and expressions have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say:
- CAP. 87. “Act” means the Town Councils Act;
- “carriage” means any carriage, van, cart, dray and handcart;
- “Council” means the Corozal Town Council;
- “driver’s licence” means a licence entitling the holder thereof to drive the particular description of carriage or carriages mentioned therein;
- “owner” means any person who uses or keeps or in whose custody, charge or possession or in whose house or premises any mule, horse, ass, or carriage shall be found or seen unless he proves to the contrary;
- “public carriage” means any carriage plying for or accepting hire for the carriage of passengers, goods, or materials for profit;
- “public street” means any street, road, bridge, place or wharf under the care and control of the Council.
- Licensing of horses, mules, and carriages. 3. (1) The owner of any horse, mule or carriage (except such as are kept by the Governor General, the Government or any officer who is required to keep a horse, mule or carriage in the performance of his public duties) kept or used in the town of Corozal and the owner of any carriage used on the roads in the town of Corozal shall, on or before the first day of January in each year or before any day on which such horse, mule or carriage shall be used on the roads, provide himself with a licence in respect of each and every such horse, mule or carriage as aforesaid which such owner shall keep or use or be about to keep or use:

Provided that the owner of any horse, mule or carriage who obtains a certificate from the Chief Executive Officer that such horse, mule or carriage is used partially for the public service may obtain a licence therefor on payment of one half the prescribed fee:

And provided that notwithstanding the provisions of this By-Law the owner of any horse, mule or carriage who holds a licence in respect thereof duly granted by a competent authority of another District shall be entitled to keep or use the same in the town of Corozal without the necessity of providing himself with a licence in respect thereof.

(2) Applications for such licences shall be made to the Council.

(3) Such licences shall be issued by the Town Administrator in the form prescribed by the Council on payment of the prescribed fees, and shall bear the date of the day of issue. The Town Administrator shall keep a register of all licences so issued and such register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours and every licence issued under this By-Law shall license the holder to keep the number of animals or carriages specified in the return mentioned in By-Law 6.

(4) A licence may be issued in respect of horses, mules and carriages either for one calendar year or for any period less than a year expiring on the 31st day of December in any year upon payment of the respective fees prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) Every licence issued under this By-Law shall apply only to the particular horse, mule or carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another horse, mule or carriage the property of the same owner. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the original horse, mule or carriage shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(6) Notwithstanding the sale or disposal of a licensed horse, mule or carriage, the person to whom the licence therefor was issued shall during the currency of such licence remain liable as owner for any breach of these By-Laws, unless and until he surrenders the licence to the Town Administrator with a written notice of such sale or disposal, whereupon the horse, mule or carriage (as the case may be) shall become unlicensed unless the purchaser applies for the licence to be transferred to him. Upon receipt of a fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator shall, subject to the provisions of these By-Laws, endorse and transfer such licence accordingly.

(7) If any person shall contrary to the provisions of this By-Law keep or use any horse, mule or carriage he shall be guilty of an offence against this By-Law and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Licensing and inspection of public carriages.

4. (1) The owner of a carriage shall not keep or use the same or permit it to be kept or used within the town of Corozal as a public carriage unless it be licensed by the Council for that purpose in addition to being licensed under the preceding By-Law.

(2) No such carriage shall be licensed, or having been licensed shall be used as a public carriage, unless the construction and state of repair, of such carriage and of any harness, brakes, lamps, engine, steering gear, and other mechanism requisite for the efficient propulsion, guidance or control thereof be thoroughly sound and serviceable.

(3) Any such carriage intended to be licensed under this By-Law shall be produced where directed to be inspected and tested by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy. The owner shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection and test as aforesaid.

(4) If such carriage produced as aforesaid shall be found by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be thoroughly sound and serviceable to be licensed as a public carriage he or his said deputy shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in the form of the Second Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) The licence for a public carriage shall be issued by the Town Administrator for a period of one calendar year or for any other period less than a year expiring on the 31st day of December in any year, upon production by the applicant of a certificate given by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid and upon payment quarterly of the respective fees prescribed in Part 2 of the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(6) Such licence which shall be in the form of the Third Schedule to these By-Laws, shall bear the date of the day of issue and shall apply to the public carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another carriage the property of the same owner after such other carriage has been inspected and approved by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the carriage originally licensed shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(7) The Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy may in writing order the owner of any public carriage to produce at any time such carriage and any horses or mules (if any) used for drawing the same for inspection. The owner shall obey such order and shall at the prescribed time produce such carriage and any horse or mule as aforesaid for inspection and shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection. If any such carriage or horse or mule shall at any time be certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy to be unfit for use the Council may suspend the licence granted in respect of such carriage until such time as it is certified to the Council by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy that the defects of such carriage have been remedied to his satisfaction or that the horse or mule used in drawing the same is fit for use.

(8) The owner of a carriage who shall ply for or accept hire in respect of the same without first having obtained a licence for that purpose, or who having obtained a licence shall ply for or accept hire in respect of such carriage during the time such licence is suspended shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day that he shall so let to hire such carriage.

(9) The owner of every handcart and cart or dray drawn by horse or mule licensed as aforesaid for the carriage of goods or material shall paint or cause to be painted in figures of at least one and a half inches in length in a conspicuous position on each shaft of such cart or dray the number of the licence thereof and in the case of handcarts the number shall be painted in the front of the body, facing the direction in which the handcart is proceeding.

(10) Any person bringing into the town of Corozal a cart or dray drawn by a horse or mule from one of the outlying villages or settlements, to bring in cultivated produce for sale or for home consumption shall provide himself with a driver's licence and shall apply in writing to the Council for a special permit regarding the number of times he comes weekly into town during any year ending the 31st day of December:

Provided that persons bringing into the town cartloads of firewood, building materials, or any other articles or substances of a similar nature for sale or to be otherwise disposed of in the town shall pay both a driver's licence and a cart licence.

5. (1) No person shall within the town of Corozal drive any carriage- Licensing of

 - (d) while he is intoxicated or otherwise incapacitated;
 - (e) while he is suffering from any infectious, contagious, or offensive disease, or skin complaint.
- (2) The Council may in its discretion refuse a driver's licence to or may suspend or cancel the driver's licence of any person who -
- (a) has been convicted of being drunk whilst driving any carriage;
 - (b) as driver of any carriage has been convicted of an offence against these By-Laws or against any motor vehicle regulations for the time being in force;
 - (c) is, in its opinion, unfit to hold a driver's licence.
- (3) A driver's licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in Part 3 of the First Schedule to these By-Laws:

Provided that in the case of a licence to drive a cart or dray the applicant shall first produce to the Town Administrator a written authority from the senior officer of police for the time being stationed at Corozal Town that he is fit, qualified and competent to act as a driver of a cart or dray.

- (4) No driver of any public carriage -
- (a) shall unreasonably refuse to admit and carry in such carriage any number of passengers not exceeding the number for which the same is licensed, provided always that no owner or driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or who is otherwise in an unfit state or a menace or nuisance to other passengers therein;
 - (b) licensed for the purpose of carrying passengers only, shall carry any goods on such vehicle except such as are the personal effects of any person travelling within or hiring such vehicle, provided always that no driver shall refuse to carry any such personal effects except packages or goods of such a size, weight or nature as is likely to cause damage to his vehicle;
 - (c) shall carry any passenger except within the body of such vehicle;
 - (d) shall reasonably refuse to carry on his carriage without extra charge, a reasonable quantity of luggage the property of the person hiring the same, provided always that no driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any article of luggage likely to damage the carriage, or of an unreasonable weight or size;
 - (e) shall unreasonably refuse to hire such carriage to any person requiring to hire or ride in the same, or shall unreasonably refuse to drive such carriage to any place within the town of Corozal, to which he shall be required to drive;

- (f) except with the permission of a passenger, shall allow any other person to ride in the car whilst the car is engaged, nor shall he take on additional passengers, except with the consent of those already in the car;
- (g) shall let for hire or drive any such carriage which at the time of such hiring or driving shall be unfit for use, or which may be drawn by any horse or mule which is unfit for use,
- (h) shall be improperly attired and the said driver shall appear clean at all times whilst driving or carrying fare paying passengers: attire includes jacket;
- (i) shall smoke when carrying fare paying passengers, or be uncivil, discourteous or insolent to his passengers;
- (j) shall leave any such carriage which is drawn by a horse or mule unattended or without proper control in any public street or place.

(5) Any person committing a breach of paragraph (4) of this By-Law shall on summary conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(a) keep the same as near as practicable to the left side;

(b) when meeting an animal with a rider thereon or carriage and when turning a corner, keep to the left side of the road;

- (c) when overtaking an animal with a rider thereon or carriage, pass upon the right side and not pull over to the left side until well clear of such animal or carriage or of any animal attached to any carriage;
- (d) on street crossings or intersections, give precedence to any carriage approaching his left side, allowing the latter to cross or proceed in front of him;
- (e) before stopping, drive such animal or carriage close to the left side of the roadway and parallel thereto;
- (f) when about to stop or to turn a corner, raise his hand or give some intelligible signal of his intention, so that it may be visible to any person immediately following;
- (g) before turning to the right side from one street into another, drive or ride parallel to the left side of the street which he is leaving until he is as near as practicable to the left side of the street which he is entering;
- (h) cause the carriage or animal to be drawn as near as practicable to the left side of the street and parallel thereto and brought to a standstill and remain stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary on the approach of and during the passage of any fire-engine or other vehicle, apparently proceeding in charge of a fireman to a fire, or whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger or collision with any pedestrian, animal or carriage;

- (i) at all times observe and comply with any reasonable directions of any police officer as to the manner of approaching and departing from any place, or of taking up or setting down passengers, or of loading or unloading goods, or as to the regulation of traffic;
- (j) upon any police officer holding up his hand or otherwise giving an order or direction, stop so long or proceed in such a manner as directed;
- (k) at the reasonable direction of any police officer, remove his carriage or animal from where it is standing and either remove it from the vicinity or proceed to some adjacent portion of such street, or of some neighbouring street indicated by such officer;
- (l) if he has caused or has in any way been concerned in any accident, injury, or collision to or with any person, animal, or carriage, give his name and address to the person injured or to some person on his behalf and to a police officer if one be present.

(2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall not -

- (a) negligently or wilfully obstruct, hinder or prevent the free passage of any person, carriage, or animal;
- (b) cause to be drawn in front of or take precedence of any carriage or animal which from its position has a prior right to take up to set down passengers or goods, provided that no act done with the consent of or by the direction of any police officer shall be considered a breach of this By-Law;

- (c) wilfully allow such carriage or animal to remain opposite the entrance of any street or across any passage, thoroughfare, or foot-crossing or upon the intersection of any streets, or allow the same to stand longer in any place where it is likely to endanger, obstruct, or inconvenience the traffic than is necessary for taking up or setting down passengers, or for loading or unloading goods or materials;
- (d) negligently or wilfully ride such animal or ride or drive such vehicle in a manner which is dangerous to any foot passenger;
- (e) be guilty of any insulting misconduct;
- (f) whilst driving such vehicle or riding such animal be in such a condition or position that he cannot have control of the same.

9. (1) No person shall upon a public street drive any carriage or ride any animal negligently, furiously, or recklessly.

No person or firm shall, except by permission granted by resolution of the Council directly or indirectly hold more than one stall in the Market or sublet the same to another person or firm. Stalls shall be rented only to those who occupy them personally or by an agent on their behalf who does not rent or manage any other stall in the Market.
- Maintenance of stalls. 6. Persons renting or occupying any Market stall shall keep the same together with the fixtures, fittings and appurtenances thereto clean and in proper order and shall be responsible for any damage to the same other than by fair wear and tear, and shall not without permission in writing from the Town Administrator affix extra fixtures or lights, and shall not leave any food material in or on it in any way whatever.
- Rent. 7. All rents shall be payable in advance.
- Sale of goods. 8. No person shall sell any article whatsoever on the Market premises otherwise than from a proper stall or place set apart for such purposes by the Council.
- Hours of opening. 9. The Market shall be lighted and the stall-holders and assistants admitted to their stalls at 4.30 a.m. daily (Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day excepted) but shall not be opened to the general public or for the purposes of sale until 5 a.m.
- Hours of business. 10. All stalls may be opened for business at 5 a.m. daily (Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day excepted) and shall be closed not later than 5 p.m. except on Saturdays when they shall be closed not later than 9 p.m. On all other public holidays the Market shall be closed for all purposes whatsoever by 10 a.m.

11. No livestock, except poultry or game, shall be brought into the Market. No slaughtering shall be done in the Market. Livestock prohibited.
12. All meat brought into the Market for sale (other than meat which has been previously examined at the Slaughter House) shall forthwith be submitted for examination, and shall be examined, before it is exhibited for sale, by the Clerk of the Market or a veterinary officer or a health officer. If on such examination any meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness the Clerk of the Market or veterinary officer shall notify the owner thereof and unless and until such meat shall have been approved by a medical officer it shall not be offered for sale or sold. Examination of meat.
13. No person shall expose for sale, or have in his or her possession in the Market, any bad or unwholesome meat, fruit or vegetables and any such found may be dealt with under the Public Health Act. Unwholesome food.
CAP. 41.
14. Every person, other than a customer, shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap, as approved by the medical officer, when handling meat. All persons, other than customers, handling meat, bakery products, or confectionery in the Market shall possess a food handler's certificate, and shall produce the same for inspection whenever requested by the Clerk of the Market, Town Administrator, a member of the Council, medical officer or health officer. Cleanliness.
15. No dogs shall be allowed in the Market. If any dog is found the owner thereof shall be deemed to have committed an offence against these By-Laws. Dogs prohibited.
16. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for rubbish and refuse, no rubbish or refuse shall be thrown or deposited in the Market or Market area elsewhere than in such receptacles. The feeding of animals and birds, other than those exposed for sale, in the Market or Market area shall be an offence against these By-Laws. Refuse.
17. Any lessee or stall-holder soiling the Market shall immediately thereafter thoroughly wash and clean the part so soiled. Cleaning market.

- Private property. 18. No barrels, blocks, or private property whatever shall be permitted to be placed in or about the Market, other than such as may be deemed requisite by the Clerk of the Market for stall-holders in the pursuit of their business, and any such approved barrel, block or private property placed in or about the Market shall at all times be kept covered and cleaned to the satisfaction of the said Clerk.
- Improper behaviour. 19. No quarrelsome, mischievous, obstructive or riotous conduct, swearing, obscene language, insanitary act, indecency or impropriety shall be committed in the Market or Market yard. The Clerk of the Market shall have power to order any person committing such an offence to leave the Market.
- Smoking: spitting. 20. No person shall smoke or spit in the Market.
- Loitering. 21. No person shall loiter about, sit or lie on any of the stalls in or about the Market and any person so doing, besides rendering himself liable to the penalty provided by these By-Laws, may be ejected by the Clerk of the Market, the Assistant Clerk (if any), or any police officer.
- Clerk not to trade. 22. The Clerk of the Market shall not directly or indirectly be concerned in the buying (except for the use of his household), or selling of any article exposed for sale in the Market.
- Attendance of Clerk. 23. The Clerk of the Market shall attend at the Market as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management of the same.
- Soliciting. 24. No stall-holder or person in the employ of a stall-holder either directly or indirectly at any place within the Market beyond the limits of such stall-holder's stall shall solicit any person to make any purchase.
- Offences in connection with turtle and meat. 25. Any person who shall at any stall in the Market sell or offer for sale -
(a) any part of a loggerhead turtle at the same time and at the same stall at which he is selling or offering or exposing for sale any part of a greenturtle; or

- (b) any part of a turtle unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of turtle offered for sale namely, greenturtle, hawksbill, or loggerhead; or
- (c) any part of a sheep or goat unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of mutton offered for sale, namely, sheep mutton or goat mutton; or
- (d) any meat that has been frozen unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall containing the words “Frozen Meat”,

shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

26. The fees specified in the First Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Market. The weighing of meat and turtle where necessary shall be done by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Market and according to his directions. Fees.

27. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the foregoing By-Laws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, and in the event of a continuing offence, to a further penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day on which such offence is continued. The tenancy of such person as a lessee or stall-holder may be forthwith determined by the Council and no part of the rent shall be refunded unless the Council by resolution shall so direct; and if the Council so determine any tenancy as aforesaid it may declare such lessee or stall-holder to be disqualified from holding any stall in the Market for such period not exceeding six months as it may decide. Penalty.

Slaughter House

- Place for slaughter. 28. Except in the case of wild animals which may be shot in the bush, no person shall kill or slaughter any animal or turtle the flesh of which is intended for human food in any place within, or within one mile beyond, the limits of the town of Dangriga other than in the Slaughter House.
- Hours of opening. 29. The Slaughter House shall be opened daily (Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day excepted) from 3.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sundays it may be opened at the discretion of the Council between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. for the purpose of slaughtering.
- Licence required. 30. No person shall be allowed to kill or slaughter any animal in the Slaughter House unless such person holds a licence from the Council as in these By-Laws provided.
- Licence. 31. (1) Any person applying for a licence as a butcher shall produce to the Town Administrator a certificate from the Clerk of the Slaughter House to the effect that the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and at least one member of the Council his ability to be a butcher, and also a food handler's certificate:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the certificate of ability in the case of an application for renewal of licence.

Upon the production of the aforementioned certificates and on payment of three dollars the Town Administrator shall grant such licence to the applicant.

(2) Butchers' assistants must each possess a valid licence, to be issued by the Town Administrator on payment of one dollar and fifty cents and the production of a food handler's certificate. Persons employed as carriers for the sole purpose of transporting meat from the Slaughter House to the Market and not in any way employed in the Slaughter House or Market shall not be required to obtain butcher's assistant's licences but shall possess a food handler's certificate.

(3) The possessor of a butcher's assistant's licence shall not be entitled to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but may vend meat in the Market. A licensed butcher's assistant or apprentice may on payment of an additional fee of twenty-five cents obtain a licence to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but only under the control and supervision of a licensed butcher. Such additional licences shall expire on 30th June, if issued during the first half of a year, and 31st December, if issued during the second half of a year. An additional licence shall not be issued to the same person more than twice except with the written permission of the Council issued after consideration of the merits and grounds of the application.

(4) All butcher's assistant's licences, other than additional licences, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued and shall not be transferable.

(5) Any person who employs in or brings a person under the age of fourteen years into the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress shall commit an offence against these By-Laws. It shall be an offence for any person under the age of fourteen years to enter the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress.

32. Every butcher and butcher's assistant shall possess a food handler's certificate, and when handling meat shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap as approved by the Medical Officer. Cleanliness.

33. Any licensed butcher's assistant who - Cancellation and suspension of licence.

(a) in the opinion of the Council has ill-treated or used unnecessary cruelty to an animal while being slaughtered or has ill-treated an animal intended for slaughter;

- (b) neglects or refuses to provide an animal with an adequate supply of drinking water while enclosed or secured in the Slaughter House yard or other place appointed by the Council preparatory to slaughter by him;
- (c) is guilty of uncleanness, non-compliance with these By-Laws, or disorderly obstructive, mischievous, or unseemly behaviour in or at the Market or Slaughter House or in the yards or precincts thereof;
- (d) neglects or refuses to obtain a food handler's certificate or to renew it when it expires, or fails or refuses to produce such certificate when so requested by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, Clerk of the Market, or Town Administrator, or a medical officer, veterinary officer or health officer, shall be liable at the discretion of the Council to have his licence suspended for such period as the Council may think fit, or cancelled, in addition to any other penalty he may incur under these By-Laws, the Public Health Regulations and any other laws. A butcher whose licence has been suspended or cancelled shall not operate as a butcher's assistant except with the consent of the Council. A butcher's assistant whose licence has been cancelled or suspended shall be debarred from operating in the Slaughter House or at a meat stall in the Market. In case of suspension or cancellation of a licence no part of the fees paid shall be refunded unless the Board by resolution shall so direct.

CAP. 40.

Register of butchers and assistants.

34. A register of all licensed butchers and butcher's assistants shall be kept in the office of the Council and shall be open to inspection by a medical officer or health officer, and to the Council and its staff.

Tying up animals.

35. (1) Animals intended for slaughter shall be tied up at the Slaughter

House or other place appointed by the Council for a period of not less than twelve hours or more than forty eight hours before slaughter. The person tying up such animal at the Slaughter House or appointed place or his agent shall immediately notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House and the period shall be deemed to commence from the hour of such notification, provided the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall on investigation find that the animal has indeed been so secured. If notification is made between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m., a personal fee of fifty cents shall be paid to the Clerk of the Slaughter House at the time of notification; if this fee is not paid he shall not be required to accept the notification.

(2) Animals that have completed the minimum period of twelve hours at the stake may be presented to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for approval for slaughter between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. or on the opening of the Slaughter House in the morning.

(3) Persons bringing animals to the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council must see that such animals are properly tied up, and the Council shall not be responsible for the loss of, or damage to any animal tied up in the appointed places. On the expiry of forty eight hours at the stake the animal must either be slaughtered in the Slaughter House yard or other appointed place; an animal so removed shall not be presented again under forty eight hours from the time of its removal.

(4) During the time an animal is secured at the appointed place the person who is tendering the animal for examination and slaughter or the butcher who intends to slaughter the animal shall provide it with an adequate supply of good drinking water, and failure or neglect to do so shall be an offence against these By-Laws.

36. Animals intended for slaughter shall be weighed on the weighbridge established for such purpose on the Market premises and it shall be incumbent on persons in charge of such animals, to notify the Town Administrator when such animals shall be weighed.

Weighing of animals.

- Register of weights. 37. A register of weights shall be kept by the Clerk of the Slaughter House for the purpose of recording the weight of animals about to be slaughtered and the Town Administrator is required from time to time, to inspect the said register to ensure that it is properly kept.
- Inspection of animals and meat. 38. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall examine the condition of all animals brought to be slaughtered and of the meat thereof intended to be offered for sale. If any animal or meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness he shall notify the owner thereof and, unless and until such animal or meat shall have been approved by a medical officer, such animal shall not be slaughtered nor shall such meat be offered for sale or be sold.
- Cleaning premises. 39. Any person using the Slaughter House for killing any animal shall immediately after slaughtering such animal thoroughly wash and clean the flooring, tables or other part of the main building or other erection used and soiled by such killing.
- Cleaning and dressing meat. 40. All meat shall be properly cleaned and dressed before leaving the Slaughter House and shall be covered with cloth to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and kept so covered while being conveyed from the Slaughter House to the Market.
- Entry restricted. 41. No person shall enter the Slaughter House premises or compound except on business. An unauthorised person shall immediately leave the Slaughter House or its yard when requested to do so by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, the Town Administrator or a medical officer, health officer, veterinary officer, a member of the Council or a member of the police department.
- Dogs prohibited. 42. No dogs shall be allowed in the Slaughter House or the yard thereof. If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be considered to have committed an offence against these By-Laws.
- Nuisance, etc. 43. No person shall loiter, smoke or spit or commit any nuisance, insanitary act or act of annoyance, obstruction or mischief or any breach of the peace or unlawful act within the Slaughter House or its precincts.

44. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for refuse and rubbish, no refuse or rubbish from the Slaughter House shall be deposited elsewhere than in such receptacles. Refuse.
45. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall attend at the Slaughter House as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management thereof. Attendance of Clerk.
46. (1) In the event of a captive bolt pistol, humane killer or other mechanical killing device being provided by the Council its use on the type of animals for which it is designed shall be obligatory. Humane killer.
- (2) The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall be responsible for maintaining the device in clean and proper working condition and for seeing that it is not used or handled in a manner dangerous to persons, property or the device. He may either operate the device himself, in which case the butcher whose animal he is about to kill shall afford him every assistance, or he may, at his discretion and responsibility, permit a licensed butcher or butcher's assistant to operate it.
- (3) Any butcher or butcher's assistant who uses the device in a manner contrary to the instructions of the Clerk of the Slaughter House or that may cause, or causes, injury or damage to persons or property or the device, or who uses the device without the permission of the Clerk of the Slaughter House, shall commit an offence against these By-Laws and, irrespective of any other penalty or penalties that may be lawfully incurred, shall pay for or otherwise make good any damage done to the Council's property or loss the Council may suffer in consequence of his actions.
47. The fees specified in the Second Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for all animals killed or Fees. Second Schedule.

Weighing meat to ascertain fees.

48. All meat on which the fees are charged according to weight shall be weighed by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and according to his directions. The weight of all meat except turtle shall be ascertained after the carcass has been dressed. The weight of turtle shall be ascertained before it is slaughtered.

Penalty.

49. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the preceding By-Laws relating to the Slaughter House shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

CHAPTER 87DANGRIGA (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS
(Sections 50 and 63)Ch. 67.
Ch. 136.

1. These By-Laws may for all purposes be cited as the Short title.
- DANGRIGA (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS.
2. In these By-Laws if not inconsistent with the context the following words and expressions have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say: Interpretation.
- “carriage” means any carriage, van, cart, dray and handcart;
- “driver’s licence” means a licence entitling the holder thereof to drive the particular description of carriages mentioned therein;
- “owner” means any person who uses or keeps any mule, horse, ass or carriage or in whose custody, charge or possession or in whose house or premises any mule, horse, ass, or carriage shall be found or seen unless he proves to the contrary;
- “public carriage” means any carriage plying for or accepting hire for the carriage of passengers, goods, or materials for profit;
- “public street” means any street, road, bridge, place or wharf under the care and control of the Council.
3. (1) The owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage (except such as are kept by the Government or by any officer who is required to keep a horse, mule, ass or carriage in the performance of his public duties) kept or used in the town of Dangriga shall, on or before the first day of January in each year or on or before any day on which such horse, mule, ass or carriage shall be kept or Licensing of horses, mules, asses and carriages.

used, provide himself with a licence in respect of each and every such horse, mule, ass or carriage as aforesaid which such owner shall keep or use:

Provided that -

- (a) any such owner who obtains from the Chief Executive Officer a certificate that such horse, mule, ass or carriage is used partially for the public service may obtain a licence therefor on payment of one half the prescribed fee;
- (b) any such owner who satisfies the Council that any such horse, mule or ass is kept or used in the town for agricultural purposes may obtain a licence on payment of a fee of one dollar;
- (c) notwithstanding the provisions of this By-Law any such owner who holds a licence duly granted by a competent authority of another District shall be entitled to keep or use such horse, mule, ass or carriage in the town without the necessity of providing himself with a licence in respect thereof.

(2) Applications for such licence shall be made to the Council.

(3) Such licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the sums following, that is to say, if the person liable under this By-Law to provide himself with a licence shall have become so liable before the first day of April in any year he shall pay the full sum prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws; if any person shall become liable as aforesaid after the 31st day of March and before the 1st day of July in any year, he shall only pay three-fourths of such sum; if after the 30th day of June and before the 1st day of October in any year, he shall pay only one-half of such sum; and if after the 30th day of September in any year, he shall pay only one-fourth of such sum. The Town Administrator shall keep a register of all licences so issued, which register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

(4) Every licence so issued shall be in the form prescribed by the Council and bear the date of the day of issue and shall continue in force therefrom until the next succeeding 31st day of December.

(5) Every licence issued under this By-Law shall license the holder thereof to keep the number of animals or carriages specified on the return mentioned in By-law 6 of these By-Laws.

(6) No licence issued under this By-Law shall be transferable and the animal or carriage which has passed from the ownership of the holder of a licence shall not be included or reckoned as of the number mentioned in such licence.

(7) If any person shall, contrary to the provisions of this By-Law, keep or use any horse, mule, or carriage, he shall be guilty of an offence against this By-Law and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

4. (1) The owner of a carriage shall not keep or use the same or permit it to be kept or used within the town of Dangriga as a public carriage unless it be licensed by the Council for that purpose in addition to being licensed under the preceding By-Law.

Licensing and inspection of public carriages.

(2) No such carriage shall be licensed, or having been licensed shall be used as a public carriage, unless the construction and state of repair of such carriage and of any harness, brakes, lamps, engine, steering gear, and other mechanisms requisite for the efficient propulsion, guidance or control thereof be thoroughly sound and serviceable.

(3) Any such carriage intended to be licensed under this By-Law shall be produced where directed to be inspected and tested by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy. The owner shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection and test as aforesaid and shall if requested dismantle and expose any part of the mechanism or machinery.

(4) If such carriage produced as aforesaid shall be found by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be thoroughly sound and serviceable to be licensed as a public carriage he or his said deputy shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in the form of the Second Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) The licence for a public carriage shall be issued by the Town Administrator on the production by the applicant of a certificate given by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid, and upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(6) Such licence which shall be in the form of the Third Schedule to these By-Laws, shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue and shall apply to the public carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another carriage the property of the same owner after such substitute has been inspected and approved as aforesaid. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the original carriage shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(7) The Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, may in writing order the owner of any public carriage to produce at any time such carriage and any horses or mules (if any) used for drawing the same for inspection. The owner shall obey such order and shall at the prescribed time produce such carriage and any horse or mule as aforesaid for inspection and shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection. If any such carriage or horse or mule shall at any time be certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be unfit for use, the Council may suspend the licence granted in respect of such carriage until such time as it is certified to the Council by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy that the defects of such carriage have been remedied to his satisfaction or that the horse or mule used in drawing the same is fit for use.

(8) The owner of a carriage who shall ply for or accept hire in respect of the same without first having obtained a licence for that purpose, or who having obtained a licence shall ply for or accept hire in respect of such carriage during the time such licence is suspended shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day that he shall so let to hire such carriage.

(9) In the case of any public carriage certified by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy to be of a superior class to carriages ordinarily plying for hire, the Council may authorise the Town Administrator to endorse the licence of such carriage with the words "Special Licence". When a licence is so endorsed, such public carriage shall be exempted from the fares set out in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws.

(10) The owner of every handcart and cart or dray drawn by horse or mule licensed as aforesaid for the carriage of goods or material, shall paint or cause to be painted in figures of at least one and a half inches in length in a conspicuous position on each shaft of such cart or dray the number of the licence thereof, and, in the case of handcarts, the number shall be painted in the front of the body, facing the direction in which the handcart is proceeding.

(11) Any person bringing into the town of Dangriga a cart or dray with cultivated produce for sale or home consumption and drawn by a horse or mule, shall provide himself with a driver's licence and shall apply in writing to the Council for a special permit regarding the number of times weekly that he may bring such cart or dray into the town during any year ending 31st December:

Provided that in the case of persons bringing into the town cart loads of firewood for sale in town, they shall pay a driver's and cart licence.

Licensing of
carriages.

5. (1) No person shall within the town of Dangriga drive any carriage-
- (a) unless he obtains from the Council and legally holds a driver's licence;
 - (b) after his driver's licence has expired or been cancelled;
 - (c) while his driver's licence is under suspension;
 - (d) while he is intoxicated or otherwise incapacitated;
 - (e) while he is suffering from any infectious, contagious, or offensive disease, or skin complaint.

(2) The Council may in its discretion refuse a driver's licence to or may suspend or cancel the driver's licence of any person who -

- (a) has been convicted of being drunk whilst driving any carriage;
- (b) as driver of any carriage has been convicted of an offence against these By-Laws or against any motor vehicle regulations for the time being in force;
- (c) is, in its opinion, unfit to hold a driver's licence.

(3) A driver's licence shall be issued by the Town Administration upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(4) Every licensed driver of a public carriage who -

- (a) shall unreasonably refuse to admit and carry in such carriage any number of passengers not exceeding the number for which the same is licensed, provided always that no owner or driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or otherwise a menace or nuisance to other passengers therein, or

- (b) shall carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease against the express objection of any two or more passengers in such carriage, or
- (c) shall unreasonably refuse to carry in his carriage without extra charge, a reasonable quantity of luggage the property of any passenger, provided always that no driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any article of luggage likely to damage the carriage, or of an unreasonable weight or size, or
- (d) shall unreasonably refuse to hire such carriage to any person requiring to hire or ride in the same, or shall unreasonably refuse to drive such carriage to any place to which he shall be required to drive, or
- (e) shall let for hire or drive any such carriage which at the time of such hiring or driving shall be unfit for use, or which may be drawn by any horse or mule which is unfit for use, or
- (f) shall conduct himself insolently or improperly while in charge of any such carriage, or
- (g) shall leave any such carriage which is drawn by a horse or mule unattended or without proper control in any public street, shall be guilty of an offence against this By-Law.

Returns to be made by licensees.

6. (1) Every person liable to take out any licence or licences under these By-Laws shall, within one calendar month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become so liable and within one month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become liable to take out any further licence under these By-Laws or any of them, make out and give in or cause to be given in to the Town Administrator a true and just return in writing in the form and containing the particulars mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

(2) Every such return shall be signed by the person making the same, provided that in the case of a person unable to write, his or her mark shall be made to such return in the presence of and shall be attested by a justice of the peace.

(3) Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly make a false return or who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make and give in or cause to be given in any such return, shall be guilty of an offence against this By-Law.

Fares for passengers and the number of persons to be carried in a public carriage.

7. (1) The Town Administrator shall cause the table of fares set forth in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws to be distinctly printed on card or metal in legible numbers and figures.

(2) The Town Administrator shall issue one such table of fares free to every owner of a carriage licensed to carry passengers, and shall supply additional cards at any time at a charge of twenty-five cents each.

(3) The said card or metal shall be numbered to correspond with the number of the licence of such carriage and shall specify the maximum number of persons allowed to be carried in such carriage.

(4) Every such owner shall, under a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars, cause the said table of fares to be affixed and exposed, and to be kept affixed and exposed, on the inside of such carriage in such manner that it may be seen by persons using such carriage.

(5) The owner or driver of such carriage shall be entitled to demand and take for the hire of such carriage the fares set forth in the said Schedule.

(6) Any owner or driver of such carriage who shall demand or attempt to obtain from any person or persons using such carriage a fare exceeding the rate of fares set out in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

8. (1) The charges for goods and materials carried in or upon carts, drays and vans licensed for the carriage of goods and materials shall be those set forth in the Sixth Schedule to these By-Laws.

Charges to be made by carts, drays and vans.

(2) Any owner or driver of such cart, dray or van who shall demand or attempt to obtain from any person or persons employing such cart, dray or van more than the charges set out in the said Schedule, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

9. (1) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall -

Vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

(a) keep the same as near as practicable to the left side;

(b) when meeting an animal with a rider thereon or carriage and when turning a corner keep to the left side of the road;

(c) when overtaking an animal with a rider thereon or carriage pass upon the right side and not pull over to the left side until well clear of such animal or

- carriage or of any animal attached to any carriage;
- (d) on street crossings or intersections give precedence to any carriage approaching his left side, allowing the latter to cross or proceed in front of him;
 - (e) before stopping, drive such animal or carriage close to the left side of the roadway and parallel thereto;
 - (f) when about to stop or to turn a corner, raise his hand or give some intelligible signal of his intention, so that it may be visible to any person immediately following;
 - (g) before turning to the right side from one street into another, drive or ride parallel to the left side of the street which he is leaving until he is as near as practicable to the left side of the street which he is entering;
 - (h) cause the carriage or animal to be drawn as near as practicable to the left side of the street and parallel thereto and brought to a standstill and remain stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary on the approach of and during the passage of any fire-engine or other vehicle, apparently proceeding in charge of a fireman to a fire, or, whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger or collision with any pedestrian, animal or carriage;
 - (i) at all times observe and comply with any reasonable directions of any police officer as to the manner of approaching and departing from any place, or of taking up or setting down passengers, or of loading or unloading goods, or as to the regulation of traffic;

- (j) upon any police officer holding up his hand or otherwise giving an order or direction, stop so long or proceed in such a manner as directed;
- (k) at the reasonable direction of any police officer remove his carriage or animal from where it is standing and either remove it from the vicinity or proceed to some adjacent portion of such street, or of some neighbouring street indicated by such officer;
- (l) if he has caused or has in any way been concerned in any accident, injury or collision to or with any person, animal, or carriage give his name and address to the person injured or to some person on his behalf and to a police officer if one be present.

(2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall not -

- (a) negligently or wilfully obstruct, hinder or prevent the free passage of any person, carriage, or animal;
- (b) cause to be drawn in front of or take precedence of any carriage or animal which from its position has a prior right to take up or set down passengers or goods, provided that no act done with the consent of or by the direction of any police officer shall be considered a breach of this clause;

- (c) wilfully allow such carriage or animal to remain opposite the entrance of any street or across any passage, thoroughfare, or foot-crossing or upon the intersection of any streets, or allow the same to stand longer in any place where it is likely to endanger, obstruct, or inconvenience the traffic than is necessary for taking up or setting down passengers, or for loading or unloading goods or materials;
- (d) negligently or wilfully ride such animal or ride or drive such vehicle in a manner which is dangerous to any foot passenger;
- (e) be guilty of any insulting misconduct;
- (f) whilst driving such vehicle or riding such animal, be in such a condition or position that he cannot have control of the same.

Speed of vehicles: prevention and restriction of use of vehicles on certain streets.

10. (1) No person shall upon a public street drive any carriage or ride any animal or bicycle negligently, furiously, or recklessly.

(2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall drive or ride slowly and consistently with safety when -

- (a) turning the corner of any street into any other street;
- (b) turning around on any street;

- (c) crossing the intersection of any street;
- (d) crossing the entrance of any footpath or going into or out of any lane, right-of-way, or private entrance;
- (e) entering or proceeding through any bend or curve or down any steep grade or along any crowded place on any such street;
- (f) passing any school whilst the children are coming out therefrom.

(3) No person shall drive any carriage or ride any animal on any street or part of a street where a sign is erected consisting of a disc having the words “No Traffic” painted thereon.

(4) The use of any public street by carriage or animal may be prohibited or restricted by signs placed in a conspicuous place by the Council at or near where such prohibition or restriction is to be enforced.

(5) Such signs aforesaid shall indicate the directions and speed as follows -

- (a) a sign-post shall indicate that carriages and animals are to proceed in the direction in which the sign-post points only;
- (b) a sign with the word “Stop” shall indicate that no carriage or animal shall proceed past it;
- (c) signs specifying the number of miles per hour shall indicate the greatest speed at which a carriage or animal may proceed over the portion of road indicated.

(6) The driver of any carriage or rider of any animal who shall wilfully disregard the directions indicated by any of the signs aforesaid shall, upon summary conviction, be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Lights on carriages. 11. (1) During the period between one half-hour after sunset and one half-hour before sunrise the driver of every carriage shall carry attached thereto and keep lighted one or more lamps as hereinafter provided which shall be constructed and placed so as to exhibit a light in the direction in which such carriage is proceeding.

(2) On any carriage other than a cart or dray drawn by any animal two such lamps shall be carried, one on either side of such carriage.

(3) On any cart or dray not driven by mechanical power one such lamp shall be carried on the right side of such cart or dray.

(4) Every person who is guilty of an offence against this By-Law shall upon summary conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each and every offence.

- Fees.
First Schedule. 27. The fees specified in the First Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Market.
- Offence and penalty. 28. Any person who commits a breach of any of the foregoing by-laws shall be guilty of an offence and on summary conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, and in the event of a continuing offence after notice of such offence is given by the Council to a further penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day on which such offence is continued.

Slaughter House

- Place of slaughter. 29. Except in the case of wild animals which may be killed in the bush, no person shall kill or slaughter any animal or turtle the flesh of which is intended for human food in any place within, or within one mile beyond, the limits of the town of Orange Walk other than in the Slaughter House.
- Hours of opening. 30. The Slaughter House shall be opened on Saturdays daily from 3 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on every other day of the week from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. (Sundays included).
- Licence required. 31. No person shall be allowed to kill or slaughter any animal in the Slaughter House unless such person holds a licence from the Council as in these By-Laws provided.
- Licence. 32. (1) Any person applying for a licence as a butcher shall produce to the Town Administrator a certificate from the Clerk of the Slaughter House to the effect that the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and at least one member of the Council his ability to be a butcher, and also a food handler's certificate:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the certificate of ability in the case of an application for renewal of licence.

(2) Upon the production of the aforementioned certificates and on payment of one dollar, the Town Administrator shall grant such licence to the applicant.

(3) Butchers' assistants must each possess a valid licence to be issued by the Town Administrator on payment of one dollar and the production of a food handler's certificate.

(4) Persons employed as carriers for the sole purpose of transporting meat from the Slaughter House to the Market and not in any way employed in the Slaughter House or Market shall not be required to obtain a butcher's assistant's licence but shall possess a food handler's certificate.

(5) The possessor of a butcher's assistant's licence shall not be entitled to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but may vend meat in the Market.

(6) A licensed butcher's assistant or apprentice may on payment of an additional fee of twenty five cents obtain a licence to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but only under the control and supervision of a licensed butcher.

(7) Such additional licences shall expire on 30th June, if issued during the first half of a year, and 31st day of December if issued during the second half of a year.

(8) An additional licence shall not be issued to the same person more than twice except with the written permission of the Council issued after consideration of the merits and grounds of the application.

(9) All butcher's and butcher's assistant's licences, other than additional licences, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued and shall not be transferable.

(10) Any person who employs in or brings a person under the age of fourteen years into the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

(11) Any person under the age of fourteen years who enters the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress shall be guilty of an offence.

Cleanliness.

33. Every butcher and butcher's assistant shall possess a food handler's certificate, and when handling meat shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap as approved by the Medical Officer.

Offences by butchers and butchers' assistants.

34. Any licensed butcher or butcher's assistant who -

(a) in the opinion of the Council has ill-treated or used unnecessary cruelty to an animal while being slaughtered or has ill-treated an animal intended for slaughter, or

(b) neglects or refuses to provide an animal with an adequate supply of drinking water while enclosed or secured in the Slaughter House yard or other place appointed by the Council preparatory to slaughter by him, or

(c) is guilty of uncleanliness or disorderly, obstructive, mischievous, or unseemly behaviour in or at the Market or Slaughter House or in the yards or precincts thereof, or

- (d) neglects or refuses to obtain a food handler's certificate or to renew it when it expires, or fails or refuses to produce such certificate when so requested by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, Town Administrator, Clerk of the Markets, a medical officer, veterinary officer, or health officer, shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

35. A register of all licensed butchers and butchers' assistants shall be kept in the office of the Council and shall be open to inspection by a medical officer or health officer and by the Council and its staff. Register of butchers and assistants.
36. A register of weights shall be kept by the Clerk of the Slaughter House for the purpose of recording the weights of animals about to be slaughtered and the Town Administrator is required from time to time, to inspect the said register to ensure that it is properly kept. Register of weights.
37. Animals intended for slaughter shall be weighed on the weighbridge established for such purpose on the Market premises and it shall be incumbent on persons in charge of such animals to notify the Town Administrator when such animals shall be weighed. Weighing of animals.
38. (1) Animals intended for slaughter shall be secured at the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council for a period of not less than six hours or more than nine hours before slaughter. Tying up animals.
- (2) The person securing such animal at the Slaughter House or appointed place or his agent shall immediately notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House and the period shall be deemed to commence from the hour of such notification provided the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall on investigation find that the animal has indeed been so secured.

(3) If notification is made between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. a personal fee of fifty cents shall be paid to the Clerk of the Slaughter House at the time of notification and if this fee is not paid he shall not be required to accept the notification.

(4) Animals that have completed the minimum period of six hours at the stake may be presented to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for approval for slaughter between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. or on the opening of the Slaughter House in the morning.

(5) Persons bringing animals to the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council must see that such animals are properly secured, and the Council shall not be responsible for the loss of, or damage to, any animal secured in the appointed places.

(6) At the expiration of nine hours at the stake the animal must either be slaughtered in the Slaughter House or removed from the Slaughter House yard or other appointed place.

(7) An animal so removed shall not be presented again under forty-eight hours from the time of its removal.

(8) During the time an animal is secured at the appointed place the person who is tendering the animal for examination and slaughter or the butcher who intends to slaughter the animal shall provide it with an adequate supply of good drinking water, and failure or neglect to do so shall be an offence against these By-Laws.

Examination of animals.

39. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall examine the condition of all animals brought to be slaughtered and of the meat thereof intended to be offered for sale and if any such animal or meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness he shall notify the owner thereof and, unless and until such animal or meat shall have been approved by a medical officer, such animal shall not be slaughtered nor shall any such meat be offered for sale or be sold.

40. Any person using the Slaughter House for killing any animal shall immediately after slaughtering such animal thoroughly wash and clean the flooring, tables or other parts of the main building or other erection used and soiled by such killing. Cleaning premises.

41. All meat shall be properly cleaned and dressed before leaving the Slaughter House and kept so covered with cloth to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and kept so covered while being conveyed from the Slaughter House to the Market. Cleaning and dressing meat.

42. (1) No person shall enter the Slaughter House premises or compound except on business. Entry restricted.

(2) An unauthorised person shall immediately leave the Slaughter House or its yards when requested to do so by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, the Town Administrator, a medical officer, health officer, veterinary officer, a member of the Council or a member of the police force.

43. (1) No dogs shall be allowed in the Slaughter House or the yard thereof. Dogs prohibited.

(2) If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be considered to have committed an offence against these By-Laws.

44. No person shall loiter, smoke, spit, or commit any nuisance, insanitary act or act of annoyance, obstruction or mischief or any breach of the peace or unlawful act within the Slaughter House or its precincts. Nuisance, etc.

45. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for rubbish and refuse no rubbish or refuse from the Slaughter House shall be deposited elsewhere than in such receptacles. Refuse.

- Attendance of Clerk. 46. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall attend at the Slaughter House as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management thereof.
- Humane killer. 47. (1) In the event of a captive bolt pistol, humane killer or other mechanical killing device being provided by the Council its use on the types of animals for which it is designed shall be obligatory.
- (2) The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall be responsible for maintaining the device in clean and proper working condition and for seeing that it is not used or handled in a manner dangerous to persons, property or the device.
- (3) The Clerk of the Slaughter House may either operate the device himself, in which case the butcher whose animals he is about to kill shall afford him every assistance, or he may, at his discretion and responsibility, permit a licensed butcher or butcher's assistant to operate it.
- (4) Any butcher or butcher's assistant who uses the device in a manner contrary to the instructions of the Clerk of the Slaughter House or in any manner that may cause, or causes, injury or damage to persons or property or the device, or who uses the device without the permission of the Clerk of the Slaughter House, commits an offence against these By-Laws and, irrespective of any other penalty or penalties that may be lawfully incurred, shall pay for or otherwise make good any damage done to the Council's property or loss the Council may suffer in consequence of his actions.
- Fees. Second Schedule. 48. The fees specified in the Second Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for all animals killed or dressed at the Slaughter House.
- Weighing meat. 49. (1) All meat on which the fees are charged according to weight shall be weighed by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and according to his directions.

(2) In the event of a proper scale being provided for the purpose, the weight of all animals about to be slaughtered shall be ascertained before slaughter and after slaughtering the weight of all meat, except turtle shall be ascertained after the carcass has been dressed.

50. Any person who commits a breach of any of the preceding By-Laws relating to the Slaughter House shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty five dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. Penalty.

Interpretation.

2. In these By-Laws if not inconsistent with the context the following words and expressions have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say:

“carriage” means any carriage, van, cart, dray and handcart;

“Council” means the Orange Walk Town Council;

“driver’s licence” means a licence entitling the holder thereof to drive the particular description of carriage or carriages mentioned therein;

“owner” means any person who uses or keeps any mule, horse, ass or carriage or in whose custody, charge or possession or in whose house or premises any mule, horse, ass, or carriage shall be found or seen unless he proves to the contrary;

“public carriage” means any carriage plying for or accepting hire for the carriage of passengers, goods, or materials for profit;

“public street” means any street, road, bridge, place or wharf under the care and control of the Council.

Licensing of horses, mules and carriages.

3. (1) The owner of any horse, mule or carriage (except such as are kept by the Governor-General, the Government, or any officer who is required to keep a horse, mule or carriage in the performance of his public duties) kept or used in the town of Orange Walk shall on or before the 1st day of January in each year or before any day on which such horse, mule or carriage shall be kept or used, provide himself with a licence in respect of each and every of such horse, mule or carriage as aforesaid which such owner shall keep or use:

Provided that the owner of any horse, mule or carriage who obtains a certificate from the Chief Executive Officer that such horse, mule or carriage is used partially for the public service may obtain a licence therefor on payment of one half the prescribed fee:

And provided that notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law the owner of any horse, mule or carriage who holds a licence in respect thereof duly granted by a competent authority of another district shall be entitled to keep or use the same in the town of Orange Walk without the necessity of providing himself with a licence in respect thereof.

(2) Applications for such licence shall be made to the Council.

(3) Such licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the sums following, that is to say, if the person liable under this by-law to provide himself with a licence shall have become so liable before the 1st day of April in any year he shall pay the full sum prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws; if any person shall become liable as aforesaid after the 31st day of March and before the 1st day of July in any year, he shall pay only three-fourths of such sum; if after the 30th day of June and before the 1st day of October in any year, he shall pay only one-half of such sum; and if after the 30th day of September in any year, he shall pay only one-fourth of such sum. The Town Administrator shall keep a register of all licences so issued, which register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

(4) Every licence so issued shall be in the form prescribed by the Council and bear the date of the day of issue and shall continue in force therefrom until the next succeeding 31st day of December.

(5) Every licence issued under this by-law shall license the holder thereof to keep the number of animals or carriages specified on the return mentioned in By-Law 6.

(6) No licence issued under this by-law shall be transferable and the animal or carriage which has passed from the ownership of the holder of a licence shall not be included or reckoned as of the number mentioned in such licence.

(7) If any person shall contrary to the provisions of this by-law keep or use any horse, mule, or carriage, he shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Licensing and inspection of public carriages.

4. (1) The owner of a carriage shall not keep or use the same, or permit it to be kept or used, within the town of Orange Walk as a public carriage unless it be licensed by the Council for that purpose in addition to being licensed under the preceding by-law.

(2) No such carriage shall be licensed, or having been licensed shall be used as a public carriage, unless the construction and state of repair of such carriage and of any harness, brakes, lamps, engine, steering gear, and other mechanism requisite for the efficient propulsion, guidance or control thereof be thoroughly sound and serviceable.

(3) Any such carriage intended to be licensed under this by-law shall be produced where directed to be inspected and tested by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy. The owner shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection and test as aforesaid and shall if requested dismantle and expose any part of the mechanism or machinery.

(4) If such carriage produced as aforesaid shall be found by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be thoroughly sound and serviceable to be licensed as a public carriage he or his said deputy shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in the form of the Second Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) The licence for a public carriage shall be issued by the Town Administrator on the production by the applicant of a certificate given by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid, and upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule of these By-Laws.

(6) Such licence which shall be in the form of the Third Schedule to these By-Laws, shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue and shall apply to the public carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another carriage the property of the same owner after such substitute has been inspected and approved as aforesaid. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the original carriage shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(7) The Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, may in writing order the owner of any public carriage to produce at any time such carriage and any horses or mules (if any) used for drawing the same for inspection. The owner shall obey such order and shall at the prescribed time produce such carriage and any horse or mule as aforesaid for inspection and shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection. If any such carriage or horse or mule shall at any time be certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be unfit for use the Council may suspend the licence granted in respect of such carriage until such time as it is certified to the Council by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy that the defects of such carriage have been remedied to his satisfaction or that the horse or mule used in drawing the same is fit for use.

(8) The owner of a carriage who shall ply for or accept hire in respect of the same without first having obtained a licence for that purpose, or who having obtained a licence shall ply for or accept hire in respect of such carriage during the time such licence is suspended, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day that he shall so let to hire such carriage.

(9) The owner of every cart or dray drawn by horse or mule licensed as aforesaid for the carriage of goods or material shall paint or cause to be painted in figures of at least one and a half inches in length and a half inch in width in a conspicuous position on each shaft of such cart or dray the number of the licence thereof.

carriages.

5. (1) No person shall within the town of Orange Walk drive any carriage -

- (a) unless he obtains from the Council and legally holds a driver's licence,
- (b) after his driver's licence has expired or been cancelled;
- (c) while his driver's licence is under suspension;
- (d) while he is intoxicated or otherwise incapacitated;
- (e) while he is suffering from any infectious, contagious, or offensive disease, or skin complaint.

(2) The Council may in its discretion refuse a driver's licence to or may suspend or cancel the driver's licence of any person who

- (a) has been convicted of being drunk whilst driving any carriage;
- (b) as driver of any carriage has been convicted of an offence against these By-Laws or against any motor vehicle regulations for the time being in force;

(c) is, in its opinion, unfit to hold a driver's licence.

(3) A driver's licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(4) Every licensed driver of a public carriage who -

(a) shall unreasonably refuse to admit and carry in such carriage any passengers for whom there is accommodation, provided always that no owner or driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease, or

(b) shall unreasonably refuse to carry in his carriage without extra charge, a reasonable quantity of luggage the property of any passenger, provided always that no driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any article of luggage likely to damage the carriage, or of an unreasonable weight or size, or

(c) shall unreasonably refuse to hire such carriage to any person requiring to hire or ride in the same, or shall unreasonably refuse to drive such carriage to any place to which he shall be required to drive, or

(d) shall let for hire or drive any such carriage which at the time of such hiring or driving shall be unfit for use, or which may be drawn by any horse or mule which is unfit for use, or

- (e) shall conduct himself insolently or improperly while in charge of any such carriage, or
- (f) shall leave any such carriage which is drawn by a horse or mule unattended or without proper control in any public street, shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.
- Returns to be made by Licensee. 6. (1) Every person liable to take out any licence or licences under these By-Laws shall within one calendar month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become so liable, and within one month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become liable to take out any further licence under these By-Laws or any of them, make out and give in or cause to be given in to the Town Administrator a true and just return in writing in the form and containing the particulars mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereto.
- (2) Every such return shall be signed by the person making the same, provided that in the case of a person unable to write, his or her mark shall be made to such return in the presence of and shall be attested by a justice of the peace.
- (3) Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly make a false return or who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make and give in or cause to be given in any such return shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.
- Traffic. 7. (1) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall -
- (a) keep the same as near as practicable to the left side;
- (b) when meeting an animal with a rider thereon or carriage and when turning a corner keep to the left side of the road;

- (c) when overtaking an animal with a rider thereon or carriage pass upon the right side and not pull over to the left side until well clear of such animal or carriage or of any animal attached to any carriage;
- (d) on street crossings or intersections give precedence to any carriage approaching his left side, allowing the latter to cross or proceed in front of him;
- (e) before stopping, drive such animal or carriage close to the left side of the roadway and parallel thereto;
- (f) when about to stop or to turn a corner, raise his hand or give some intelligible signal of his intention, so that it may be visible to any person immediately following;
- (g) before turning to the right side from one street into another, drive or ride parallel to the left side of the street which he is leaving until he is as near as practicable to the left side of the street which he is entering;
- (h) cause the carriage or animal to be drawn as near as practicable to the left side of the street and parallel thereto and brought to a standstill and remain stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary on the approach of and during the passage of any fire-engine or other vehicle, apparently proceeding in charge of a fireman to a fire, or whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger collision with any pedestrian, animal or carriage;
- (i) at all times observe and comply with any reasonable directions of any police officer as to the manner of approaching and departing from any place, or of taking up or setting down passengers, or of loading or unloading goods, or as to the regulation of traffic;

- (j) upon any police officer holding up his hand or otherwise giving an order or direction, stop so long or proceed in such a manner as directed;
- (k) at the reasonable direction of any police officer remove his carriage or animal from where it is standing and either remove it from the vicinity or proceed to some adjacent portion of such street, or of some neighbouring street indicated by such officer;
- (l) if he has caused or has in any way been concerned in any accident, injury, or collision to or with any person, animal, or carriage give his name and address to the person injured or to some person on his behalf and to a police officer if one be present.

(2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall not -

- (a) negligently or wilfully obstruct, hinder or prevent the free passage of any person, carriage, or animal;
- (b) cause to be drawn in front of or take precedence of any carriage or animal which from its position has a prior right to take up or set down passengers or goods, provided that no act done with the consent of or by the direction of any police officer shall be considered a breach of this clause;

- (c) wilfully allow such carriage or animal to remain opposite the entrance of any street or across any passage, thoroughfare, or foot-crossing or upon the intersection of any streets, or allow the same to stand longer in any place where it is likely to endanger, obstruct, or inconvenience the traffic than is necessary for taking up or setting down passengers, or for loading or unloading goods or materials;
- (d) negligently or wilfully ride such animal or ride or drive such vehicle in a manner which is dangerous to any foot passenger;
- (e) be guilty of any insulting misconduct;
- (f) whilst driving such vehicle or riding such animal be in such a condition or position that he cannot have control of the same.

8. (1) No person shall upon a public street drive any carriage or ride any animal negligently, furiously, or recklessly.

Speed of vehicles:
Restriction on use of streets.

(2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall drive or ride slowly and consistently with safety when -

- (a) turning the corner of any street into any other street;
- (b) turning around on any street;
- (c) crossing the intersection of any street;

- (d) crossing the entrance of any footpath or going into or out of any lane, right-of-way, or private entrance;
- (e) entering or proceeding through any bend or curve or down any steep grade or along any crowded place on any such street;
- (f) passing any school.

(3) No person shall drive any carriage or ride any animal on any street or part of a street where a sign is erected consisting of a disc having the words “No Traffic” painted thereon.

(4) The use of any public street by carriage or animal may be prohibited or restricted by signs placed in a conspicuous place by the Council at or near where such prohibition or restriction is to be enforced.

(5) Such signs aforesaid shall indicate the directions and speed as follows:

- (a) a sign-post shall indicate that carriages and animals are to proceed in the direction in which the sign-post points only;
- (b) a sign with the word “Stop” shall indicate that no carriage or animal shall proceed past it;
- (c) signs specifying the number of miles per hour shall indicate the greatest speed at which a carriage or animal may proceed over the portion of road indicated.

(6) The driver of any carriage or rider of any animal who shall wilfully disregard the directions indicated by any of the signs aforesaid shall, upon summary conviction, be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

9. (1) During the period between one half-hour after sunset and one half-hour before sunrise the driver of every carriage shall carry attached thereto and keep lighted one or more lamps, as hereinafter provided, which shall be constructed and placed so as to exhibit a light in the direction in which such carriage is proceeding.

Lights on carriages.

(2) On any carriage other than a cart or dray drawn by any animal, two such lamps shall be carried, one on either side of such carriage.

(3) On any cart or dray not driven by mechanical power, one such lamp shall be carried on the right side of such cart or dray.

(4) Every person who is guilty of an offence against this by-law shall upon summary conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each and every offence.

10. Any person who is guilty of an offence against any of the foregoing by-laws for which no special penalty is imposed shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Ch. 136.

1. These By-Laws may for all purposes be cited as the

PUNTA GORDA AND TOLEDO SETTLEMENT (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS.

2. In these By-Laws if not inconsistent with the context the following words and expressions have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say:

Interpretation.

“carriage” means any carriage, van, cart, dray and handcart;

“driver’s licence” means a licence entitling the holder thereof to drive the particular description of carriage or carriages mentioned therein;

“owner” means any person who uses or keeps any mule, horse, ass or carriage or in whose custody, charge or possession or in whose house or premises any mule, horse, ass, or carriage shall be found or seen unless he proves to the contrary;

“public carriage” means any carriage plying for or accepting hire for the carriage of passengers, goods, or materials for profit;

“public street” means any street, road, bridge, place or wharf under the care and control of the Council.

3. (1) The owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage (except such as are kept by the Governor-General, the Government, or any officer who is required to keep a horse, mule, ass or carriage in the performance of his public duties) kept or used in the town of Punta Gorda, and the owner of any carriage kept or used in the Toledo Settlement shall on or before the 1st day of January in each year, or before any day on which such horse, mule, ass or carriage shall be kept or used, provide himself with a licence in respect of each and every such horse, mule, ass or carriage as aforesaid which such owner shall keep or use or be about to keep or use:

Licensing of horses, mules and carriages.

Provided that the owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage who obtains a certificate from the Chief Executive Officer that such horse, mule, ass or carriage is used partially for the public service may obtain a licence therefor on payment of one half the prescribed fee:

And provided that notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law the owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage who holds a licence in respect thereof duly granted by a competent authority of another District, shall be entitled to keep or use the same in the town of Punta Gorda or in the Toledo Settlement without the necessity of providing himself with a licence in respect thereof.

(2) Applications for such licence shall be made to the Council.

(3) Such licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the sums following, that is to say, if the person liable under this by-law to provide himself with a licence shall have become so liable before the 1st day of April in any year, he shall pay one quarter of the sum prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws; the remaining balance payable by quarterly instalments on the 31st March, 30th June and 30th September; if any person shall become liable as aforesaid after the 31st day of March and before the 1st day of July in any year he shall pay three-fourths of such sum; if after the 30th day of June and before the 1st day of October in any year, he shall pay one-half of such sum; and if after the 30th day of September in any year, he shall pay only one-fourth of such sum. The Town Administrator shall keep a register of all licences so issued, which register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

(4) Every licence so issued shall be in the form prescribed by the Council and bear the date of the day of issue and shall continue in force therefrom until the next succeeding 31st day of December.

(5) Every licence issued under this by-law shall license the holder thereof to keep the number of animals or carriages specified on the return mentioned in By-law 6 of these By-Laws.

(6) No licence issued under this by-law shall be transferable and the animal or carriage which has passed from the ownership of the holder of a licence shall not be included or reckoned as of the number mentioned in such licence.

(7) If any person shall contrary to the provisions of this by-law keep or use any horse, mule, ass, or carriage, he shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

4. (1) The owner of a carriage shall not keep or use the same or permit it to be kept or used within the town of Punta Gorda and the Toledo Settlement as a public carriage unless it be licensed by the Council for that purpose in addition to being licensed under the preceding by-law.

Licensing and inspection of public carriages.

(2) No such carriage shall be licensed, or having been licensed shall be used as a public carriage, unless the construction and state of repair of such carriage and of any harness, brakes, lamps, engine, steering gear, and other mechanism requisite for the efficient propulsion, guidance or control thereof be thoroughly sound and serviceable.

(3) Any such carriage intended to be licensed under this by-law shall be produced where directed to be inspected and tested by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy. The owner shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection and test as aforesaid and shall if requested dismantle and expose any part of the mechanism or machinery.

(4) If such carriage produced as aforesaid shall be found by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be thoroughly sound and serviceable to be licensed as a public carriage he or his said deputy shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in the form of the Second Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) The licence for a public carriage shall be issued by the Town Administrator on the production by the applicant of a certificate given by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid, and upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(6) Such licence, which shall be in the form of the Third Schedule to these By-Laws, shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue and shall apply to the public carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another carriage the property of the same owner after such substitute has been inspected and approved as aforesaid. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the original carriage shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(7) The Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, may in writing order the owner of any public carriage to produce at any time such carriage and any horses or mules (if any) used for drawing the same for inspection. The owner shall obey such order and shall at the prescribed time produce such carriage and any horse or mule as aforesaid for inspection and shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection. If any such carriage or horse or mule shall at any time be certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be unfit for use, the Council may suspend the licence granted in respect of such carriage until such time as it is certified to the Council by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, that the defects of such carriage have been remedied to his satisfaction or that the horse or mule used in drawing the same is fit for use.

(8) The owner of a carriage who shall ply for or accept hire in respect of the same without first having obtained a licence for that purpose, or who having obtained a licence shall ply for or accept hire in respect of such carriage during the time such licence is suspended shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day that he shall so let to hire such carriage.

(9) In the case of any public carriage certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be of a superior class to carriages ordinarily plying for hire, the Council may authorise the Town Administrator to endorse the licence of such carriage with the words “Special Licence”. When a licence is so endorsed such public carriage shall be exempted from the fares set out in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws.

(10) The owner of every cart or dray drawn by horse or mule licensed as aforesaid for the carriage of goods or material, shall paint or cause to be painted in figures of at least one and a half inches in length and half an inch in width in a conspicuous position on each shaft of such cart or dray the number of the licence thereof.

5. (1) No person shall within the town of Punta Gorda and the Toledo Settlement drive any carriage -

Licensing

- (a) unless he obtains from the Council and legally holds a driver’s licence;
- (b) after his driver’s licence has expired or been cancelled;
- (c) while his driver’s licence is under suspension;
- (d) while he is intoxicated or otherwise incapacitated;
- (e) while he is suffering from any infectious, contagious, or offensive disease, or skin complaint.

(2) The Council may in its discretion refuse a driver's licence to or may suspend or cancel the driver's licence of any person who -

- (a) has been convicted of being drunk whilst driving any carriage;
- (b) as driver of any carriage has been convicted of an offence against these By-Laws or against any motor vehicle regulations for the time being in force;
- (c) is, in its opinion, unfit to hold a driver's licence.

(3) A driver's licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(4) Every licensed driver of a public carriage who -

- (a) shall unreasonably refuse to admit and carry in such carriage any number of passengers for whom there is accommodation therein, provided always that no owner or driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or otherwise a menace or nuisance to other passengers therein, or
- (b) shall carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease against the express objection of any two or more passengers in such carriage, or
- (c) shall unreasonably refuse to carry in his carriage, without extra charge, a reasonable quantity of luggage the property of any passenger, provided always that no driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any article of luggage likely to damage the carriage, or of an unreasonable weight or size, or

- (d) shall unreasonably refuse to hire such carriage to any person requiring to hire or ride in the same, or shall unreasonably refuse to drive such carriage to any place to which he shall be required to drive, or
- (e) shall let for hire or drive any such carriage which at the time of such hiring or driving shall be unfit for use, or which may be drawn by any horse or mule which is unfit for use, or
- (f) shall conduct himself insolently or improperly while in charge of any such carriage, or
- (g) shall leave any such carriage which is drawn by a horse or mule unattended or without proper control in any public street,

shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.

6. (1) Every person liable to take out any licence-or licences under these By-Laws shall within one calendar month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become so liable, and within one month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become liable to take out any further licence under these By-Laws or any of them, make out and give in or cause to be given in to the Town Administrator a true and just return in writing in the form and containing the particulars mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereof.

be made by licensees.

(2) Every such return shall be signed by the person making the same, provided that in the case of a person unable to write, his or her mark shall be made to such return in the presence of and shall be attested by a justice of the peace.

(3) Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly make a false return or who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make and give in or cause to be given in any such return shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.

Charges to be made by carts, drays and vans.

7. (1) The charges for goods and materials carried in or upon carts, drays and vans licensed for the carriage of goods and materials shall be those set forth in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws.

(2) Any owner or driver of such cart, dray or van who shall demand or attempt to obtain from any person or persons employing such cart, dray or van more than the charges set out in the said Schedule shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

8. (1) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall -

(a) keep the same as near as practicable to the left side;

(b) when meeting an animal with a rider thereon or carriage and when turning a corner keep to the left side of the road;

(c) when overtaking an animal with a rider thereon or carriage pass upon the right side and not pull over to the left side until well clear of such animal or carriage or of any animal attached to any carriage;

(d) on street crossings or intersections give precedence to any carriage approaching his left side, allowing the latter to cross or proceed in front of him;

- (e) before stopping, drive such animal or carriage close to the left side of the roadway and parallel thereto;
- (f) when about to stop or to turn a corner, raise his hand or give some intelligible signal of his intention, so that it may be visible to any person immediately following;
- (g) before turning to the right side from one street into another, drive or ride parallel to the left side of the street which he is leaving until he is as near as practicable to the left side of the street which he is entering;
- (h) cause the carriage or animal to be drawn as near as practicable to the left side of the street and parallel thereto and brought to a standstill and remain stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary on the approach of and during the passage of any fire engine or other vehicle, apparently proceeding in charge of a fireman to a fire, or whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger or collision with any pedestrian, animal or carriage
- (i) at all times observe and comply with any reasonable directions of any police officer as to the manner of approaching and departing from any place, or of taking up or setting down passengers, or of loading or unloading goods, or as to the regulation of traffic;

- (j) upon any police officer holding up his hand or otherwise giving an order or direction, stop so long or proceed in such a manner as directed;
 - (k) at the reasonable direction of any police officer remove his carriage or animal from where it is standing and either remove it from the vicinity or proceed to some adjacent portion of such street, or of some neighbouring street indicated by such officer;
 - (l) if he has caused or has in any way been concerned in any accident, injury, or collision to or with any person, animal, or carriage give his name and address to the person injured or to some person on his behalf and to a police officer if one be present.
- (2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall not -
- (a) negligently or wilfully obstruct, hinder or prevent the free passage of any person, carriage, or animal;
 - (b) cause to be drawn in front of or take precedence of any carriage or animal which from its position has a prior right to take up or set down passengers or goods, provided that no act done with the consent of or by the direction of any police officer shall be considered a breach of this by-law;

29. The Slaughter House shall be opened daily (Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day excepted) from 3.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sundays it may be opened at the discretion of the Council between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. for the purpose of slaughtering.

Hours of opening.

30. No person shall be allowed to kill or slaughter any animal in the Slaughter House unless such person holds a licence from the Council as in these By-Laws provided.

Licence required.

Licence.

31. (1) Any person applying for a licence as a butcher shall produce to the Town Administrator a food handler's certificate and a certificate from the Clerk of the Slaughter House to the effect that the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and at least one member of the Council his ability to be a butcher:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the certificate of ability in the case of an application for renewal of licence.

(2) Upon the production of the aforementioned certificates and on payment of three dollars, the Town Administrator shall grant such licence to the applicant.

(3) Butchers' assistants must each possess a valid licence to be issued by the Town Administrator on payment of one dollar and fifty cents and the production of a food handler's certificate.

(4) Persons employed as carriers for the sole purpose of transporting meat from the Slaughter House to the Market and not in any way employed in the Slaughter House or Market shall not be required to obtain butcher's assistants licences but shall possess a food handler's certificate.

(5) The possessor of a butcher's assistant's licence shall not be entitled to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but may vend meat in the Market.

(6) A licensed butcher's assistant or apprentice may, on payment of an additional fee of twenty-five cents obtain a licence to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but only under the control and supervision of a licensed butcher.

(7) Such additional licences shall expire on 30th June if issued during the first half of a year, and 31st December if issued during the second half of a year.

(8) An additional licence shall not be issued to the same person more than twice except with the written permission of the Council issued after consideration of the merits and grounds of the application.

(9) All butcher's and butcher's assistant's licences, other than additional licences, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued and shall not be transferable.

(10) Any person who employs in or brings a person under the age of fourteen years into the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

(11) No person under the age of fourteen years shall enter the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress.

Public Market

Sale of meat. 3. No person shall expose or exhibit for sale the flesh of any animal, other than a wild animal shot in the bush, in any place within, or within one mile beyond, the limits of the town of San Ignacio other than in the Market or such place or places as the Council may appoint. No person shall solicit orders within the limits of the town of San Ignacio for meat, other than that of a wild animal shot in the bush, not exposed or exhibited in the Market or places duly appointed by the Council for the sale of meat or butchered in the Slaughter House.

Stalls. 4. The Market shall be fitted with stalls which shall be numbered with distinguishing numbers and shall be appropriated for the sale of meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, groceries, bread, confectionery and such other articles as the Council may determine, and may be let by the day, week, month or year at the rates specified in the First Schedule to these By-Laws, to persons or firms approved by the Clerk of the Market subject to these By-Laws. If a stall-holder exposes or exhibits more than one category of meat or article as defined in the First Schedule to these By-Laws he shall pay the fee chargeable for each category, provided, however, he shall not be so charged for more than three categories in any one day. At or on or in a stall appointed by the Council for the sale of meat no other article shall be exposed or exhibited for sale, or stored, except with the consent of the Council.

5. No person or firm shall, except by permission granted by resolution of the Council, directly or indirectly hold more than one stall in the Market or sublet the same to another person or firm. Stalls shall be rented only to those who occupy them personally or by an agent on their behalf who does not rent or manage any other stall in the Market. One stall per person.
6. Persons renting or occupying any Market stall shall keep the same together with the fixtures, fittings and appurtenances thereto clean and in proper order and shall be responsible for any damage to the same other than by fair wear and tear and shall not without permission in writing from the Town Administrator affix extra fixtures or lights and shall not leave any food material in or on it in any way whatever. Examination of meat.

12. All meat brought into the Market for sale (other than meat which has been previously examined at the Slaughter House) shall forthwith be submitted for examination, and shall be examined before it is exposed or exhibited for sale, by the Clerk of the Market or a veterinary officer or a health officer. If on such examination any meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness the Clerk of the Market or veterinary officer shall notify the owner thereof and unless and until such meat shall have been approved by a medical officer it shall not be offered for sale or sold.

CAP. 41.

13. No person shall expose for sale, or have in his or her possession in the Market any bad or unwholesome meat, fruit or vegetables and any such found may be dealt with under the Public Health Act.

Cleanliness certificate.

14. Every person, other than a customer, shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap, as approved by the medical officer, when handling meat. All persons, other than customers, handling meat, bakery products, or confectionary in the Market shall possess a food handler's certificate, and shall produce the same for inspection whenever requested by the Clerk of the Market or the Town Administrator or a member of the Council, medical officer or health officer.

Dogs prohibited.

15. No dogs shall be allowed in the Market. If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be deemed to have committed an offence against these By-Laws.

Rubbish.

16. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for rubbish and refuse no rubbish or refuse shall be thrown or deposited in the Market or Market area elsewhere than in such receptacles. The feeding of animals and birds, other than those exposed for sale, in the Market or Market area shall be an offence against these By-Laws.

- | | | |
|-----|---|----------------------|
| 17. | Any lessee or stall-holder soiling the Market shall immediately thereafter thoroughly wash and clean the part so soiled. | Cleaning market. |
| 18. | No barrels, blocks, or private property whatever shall be permitted to be placed in or about the Market, other than such as may be deemed requisite by the Clerk of the Market for stall-holders in the pursuit of their business, and any such approved barrel, block, or private property placed in or about the Market shall at all times be kept covered and cleaned to the satisfaction of the said Clerk. | Private property. |
| 19. | No quarrelsome, mischievous, obstructive or riotous conduct, swearing, obscene language, insanitary act, indecency or impropriety shall be committed in the Market or Market yard. The Clerk of the Market shall have power to order any person committing such an offence to leave the Market. | Improper behaviour. |
| 20. | No person shall smoke or spit in the Market. | Smoking: spitting. |
| 21. | No person shall loiter about, sit or lie on any of the stalls in or about the Market and any person so doing, besides rendering himself liable to the penalty provided by these By-Laws, may be ejected by the Clerk of the Market, the Assistant Clerk (if any), or any police officer. | Loitering. |
| 22. | The Clerk of the Market shall not directly or indirectly be concerned in the buying (except for the use of his household), or selling of any article exposed for sale in the Market. | Clerk not to trade. |
| 23. | The Clerk of the Market shall attend at the Market as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management of the same. | Attendance of Clerk. | or indirectly at any place within the Market beyond the limits of such stall-holder's stall shall solicit any person to make any purchase.

Offences in connection with turtle and meat.

25. Any person who shall at any stall in the Market sell or offer for sale -

- (a) any part of a loggerhead turtle at the same time and at the same stall at which he is selling or offering or exposing for sale any part of a greenturtle; or
- (b) any part of a turtle unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of turtle offered for sale, namely, greenturtle, hawksbill, or loggerhead; or
- (c) any part of a sheep or goat unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall stating the kind of mutton offered for sale, namely, sheep mutton or goat mutton;
- (d) any meat that has been frozen unless a legible notice be exhibited in a conspicuous place on such stall containing the words "Frozen Meat",

shall be guilty of an offence against these By-Laws.

Fees: weighing. First Schedule.

26. The fees specified in the First Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Market. The weighing of meat and turtle where necessary shall be done by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Market and according to his directions.

Penalty.

27. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the foregoing by-laws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, and in the event of a continuing offence to a further penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day on which such offence is continued. The tenancy of such person as a lessee or stall-holder may be forthwith determined by the Council and no part of the rent paid shall be refunded unless the Council by resolution shall so direct; and if the Council so determine any tenancy as aforesaid it may declare such lessee or stall-holder to be disqualified from holding any stall in the Market for such period not exceeding six months as it may decide.

Slaughter House

28. Except in the case of wild animals which may be shot in the bush, no person shall kill or slaughter any animal or turtle the flesh of which is intended for human food in any place within, or within one mile beyond, the limits of the town of San Ignacio other than in the Slaughter House. Place for slaughtering.
29. The Slaughter House shall be opened daily (Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day excepted) from 3.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sundays it may be opened at the discretion of the Council between the hours of 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. for the purpose of slaughtering. Hours of opening.
30. No person shall be allowed to kill or slaughter any animal in the Slaughter House unless such person holds a licence from the Council as in these By-Laws provided. Licence required.
31. (1) Any person applying for a licence as a butcher shall produce to the Town Administrator a certificate from the Clerk of the Slaughter House to the effect that the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and at least one member of the Council his ability to be a butcher, and also a Food Handler's Certificate: Licence.

Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the certificate of ability in the case of an application for renewal of licence.

Upon the production of the aforementioned certificates and on payment of three dollars the Town Administrator shall grant such licence to the applicant.

(2) Butcher's assistants must each possess a valid licence, to be issued by the Town Administrator on payment of one dollar and fifty cents and the production of a food handler's certificate. Persons employed as carriers for the sole purpose of transporting meat from the Slaughter House to the Market and not in any way employed in the Slaughter House or Market shall not be required to obtain butcher's assistant's licences but shall possess a food handler's certificate.

(3) The possessor of a butcher's assistant's licence shall not be entitled to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but may vend meat in the Market. A licensed butcher's assistant or apprentice may on payment of an additional fee of twenty-five cents obtain a licence to slaughter animals in the Slaughter House but only under the control and supervision of a licensed butcher. Such additional licences shall expire on 30th June if issued during the first half of a year and 31st December if issued during the second half of a year. An additional licence shall not be issued to the same person more than twice except with the written permission of the Council issued after consideration of the merits and grounds of the application.

(4) All butcher's and butcher's assistant's licences, other than additional licences, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which they are issued and shall not be transferable.

(5) Any person who employs in or brings a person under the age of fourteen years into the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress shall commit an offence against these By-Laws. It shall be an offence for any person under the age of fourteen years to enter the Slaughter House or its yard while slaughtering is in progress.

Cleanliness
certificate.

32. Every butcher and butcher's assistant shall possess a Food Handler's Certificate, and when handling meat shall wear a clean butcher's apron and cap as approved by the Medical Officer.

33. Any licensed butcher or butcher's assistant who -
- Cancellation or suspension of licence.
- (a) in the opinion of the Council has ill-treated or used unnecessary cruelty to an animal while being slaughtered or has ill-treated an animal intended for slaughter;
 - (b) neglects or refuses to provide an animal with an adequate supply of drinking water while enclosed or secured in the Slaughter House yard or other place appointed by the Council preparatory to slaughter by him;
 - (c) is guilty of uncleanness, non-compliance with these By-Laws, or disorderly, obstructive, mischievous, or unseemly behaviour in or at the Market or Slaughter House or in the yards or precincts thereof;
 - (d) neglects or refuses to obtain a food handler's certificate or to renew it when it expires, or fails or refuses to produce such certificate when so requested by the Clerk of the Slaughter House, Clerk of the Market or Town Administrator or a medical officer, veterinary officer, or health officer shall be liable at the discretion of the Council to have his licence suspended for such period as the Council may think fit, or cancelled, in addition to any other penalty he may incur under these By-Laws, the Public Health Regulations and any other laws. A butcher whose licence has been suspended or cancelled shall not operate as a butcher's assistant except with the consent of the Council. A butcher's assistant whose licence has been suspended or cancelled shall be debarred from operating in the Slaughter House or at a meat stall in the Market. In case of suspension or cancellation of a licence no part of the fees paid shall be refunded unless the Council by resolution shall so direct.

- Register. 34. A register of all licensed butchers and butcher's assistants shall be kept in the office of the Council and shall be open to inspection by a medical officer or health officer, and to the Council and its staff.
- Tying up animals. 35. Animals intended for slaughter shall be tied up at the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council for a period of not less than twelve hours or more than forty-eight hours before slaughter. The person tying up such animal at the Slaughter House or appointed place or his agent shall immediately notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House and the period shall be deemed to commence from the hour of such notification provided the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall on investigation find that the animal has indeed been so secured. If notification is made between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. a personal fee of fifty cents shall be paid to the Clerk of the Slaughter House at the time of notification, if this fee is not paid he shall not be required to accept the notification. Animals that have completed the minimum period of twelve hours at the stake may be presented to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for approval for slaughter between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. or on the opening of the Slaughter House in the morning. Persons bringing animals to the Slaughter House or other place appointed by the Council must see that such animals are properly tied up, and the Council shall not be responsible for the loss of, or damage to any animal tied up in the appointed places. On the expiry of forty-eight hours at the stake the animal must either be slaughtered in the Slaughter House or removed from the Slaughter House yard or other appointed place; an animal so removed shall not be presented again under forty-eight hours from the time of its removal. During the time an animal is secured at the appointed place the person who is tendering the animal for examination and slaughter or the butcher who intends to slaughter the animal shall provide it with an adequate supply of good drinking water, and failure or neglect to do so shall be an offence against these By-Laws.
- Weighing animals. 36. Animals intended for slaughter shall be weighed on the weighbridge established for such purpose on the Slaughter House premises and it shall be incumbent on persons in charge of such animals, to notify the Clerk of the Slaughter House when such animals shall be weighed, and a register of weights shall be kept by the Clerk of the Slaughter House for the purpose of recording the weights of such animals and the Town Administrator is required from time to time, to inspect the said register to ensure that it is properly kept.

37. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall examine the condition of all animals brought to be slaughtered and of the meat thereof to be offered for sale and if any such animal or meat shall have any appearance of disease or unsoundness he shall notify the owner thereof and unless and until such animal or meat shall have been approved by a medical officer such animal shall not be slaughtered nor shall such meat be offered for sale or sold. Examination of animal and meat.
38. Any person using the Slaughter House for killing any animal shall immediately after slaughtering such animal thoroughly wash and clean the flooring, tables or other parts of the main building or other erection used and soiled by such killing. Cleaning premises.
39. All meat shall be properly cleaned and dressed before leaving the Slaughter House and shall be covered with cloth to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Slaughter House and kept so covered while being conveyed from the Slaughter House to the Market. Cleaning and dressing meat.
40. No person shall enter the Slaughter House premises or compound except on business. An unauthorised person shall immediately leave the Slaughter House or its yard when requested to do so by the Clerk of the Slaughter House or the Town Administrator or a medical officer, health officer, veterinary officer, a member of the Council or a member of the police department. Entry restricted.
41. No dogs shall be allowed in the Slaughter House or the yard thereof. If any dog is so found the owner thereof shall be considered to have committed an offence against these By-Laws. Dogs prohibited.
42. No person shall loiter, smoke, spit, or commit any nuisance, insanitary Nuisance.

act or act of annoyance, obstruction or mischief or any breach of the peace or unlawful act within the Slaughter House or its precinct.

- Refuse. 43. Where receptacles are provided by the Council for rubbish and refuse, no rubbish or refuse from the Slaughter House shall be deposited elsewhere than in such receptacles.
- Attendance of Clerk. 44. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall attend at the Slaughter House as required by the Council and be responsible for the maintenance of order and the general management thereof.
- Humane killer. 45. In the event of a captive bolt pistol, humane killer or other mechanical killing device being provided by the Council, its use on the types of animals for which it is designed shall be obligatory. The Clerk of the Slaughter House shall be responsible for maintaining the device in clean and proper working condition and for seeing that it is not used or handled in a manner dangerous to persons, property or the device. He may either operate the device himself, in which case the butcher whose animal he is about to kill shall afford him every assistance or he may, at his discretion and responsibility, permit a licensed butcher or butcher's assistant to operate it. Any butcher or butcher's assistant who uses the device in a manner contrary to the instructions of the Clerk of the Slaughter House or that may cause, or causes, injury or damage to persons or property or the device, or who uses the device without the permission of the Clerk of the Slaughter House shall commit an offence against these By-Laws and, irrespective of any other penalty or penalties that may be lawfully incurred, shall pay for or otherwise make good any damage done to the Council's property or loss the Council may suffer in consequence of his actions.
- Fees. Second Schedule. 46. The fees specified in the Second Schedule to these By-Laws shall be paid on demand to the Clerk of the Slaughter House for all animals killed or dressed at the Slaughter House.
- Weighing meat. 47. All meat on which the fees are charged according to weight shall be weighed by the owner or his agent in the presence of the Clerk of the Slaughter

House and according to his directions. The weight of all meat except turtle shall be ascertained after the carcass has been dressed. The weight of turtle shall be ascertained before it is slaughtered.

48. Any person committing a breach of or being guilty of an offence against any of the preceding By-Laws relating to the Slaughter House shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. Penalty.

SAN IGNACIO (SAVANNAH TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS
(Sections 50 and 63)

- Short title. 1. These By-Laws may be cited as
- SAN IGNACIO (SAVANNAH TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS.
- Traffic prohibited. 2. All vehicular and animal traffic through or within that portion of San Ignacio Town Savannah used as a public recreation ground is hereby prohibited except with the permission of the Mayor of the San Ignacio Town Council first obtained.
- Tennis court. 3. No vehicle shall be parked on or run on to or across the tennis court on the Savannah. Bicycles, handcarts, wheel-barrows, and roller skates shall not be ridden or used on and no animal shall be ridden, driven or otherwise caused to be upon the tennis court. No animal shall be tethered in such manner that it can trespass on to the tennis court.
- Race track. 4. All vehicular traffic within, along or through the race track on the Savannah is prohibited whenever the track is in use for horse racing, athletic and other sports including training and practice for such sports. The Mayor of the San Ignacio Town Council may on the prior application of the organisers of such sports exempt from this prohibition vehicles to be used for patrol, timing and other approved purposes in connection with the sports during periods to be specified by him.
- Power to grant exceptions. 5. The Mayor of the San Ignacio Town Council may, in his discretion, grant or refuse exemptions and permissions and may make exemption or permission subject to such conditions as he may consider desirable or necessary, and any breach of such conditions shall be an offence against these By-Laws. The Mayor shall not be bound to consider any application tendered less than twenty-four hours before the commencement of the period to be covered by the requested permission. The Mayor shall have the right to withhold his decision on any application until he has consulted the Town Council. This by-law shall not abate the right of the Town Council, by majority vote, to uphold, amend or reverse the Mayor's decision or conditions:

Provided always that the Town Council shall have no power to validate an act committed in breach of these By-Laws.

6. These By-Laws shall not apply to vehicles or animals when used by the police in preserving law and order and controlling crowds. Exception.

7. Any person contravening these By-Laws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one month. Penalty.

CHAPTER 87

SAN IGNACIO (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS
(Section 50 and 63)

Ch. 67.
Ch. 136.

1. These By-Laws may for all purposes be cited as the Short title.
- SAN IGNACIO (TRAFFIC) BY-LAWS.
2. In these By-Laws if not inconsistent with the context the following words and expressions have the meanings hereinafter respectively assigned to them, that is to say: Interpretation.
- “carriage” means any carriage, van, cart, dray and handcart;
- “driver’s licence” means a licence entitling the holder thereof to drive the particular description of carriage or carriages mentioned therein;
- “owner” means any person who uses or keeps or in whose custody, charge or possession or in whose house or premises any mule, horse, ass, or carriage shall be found or seen unless he proves to the contrary;
- “public carriage” means any carriage plying for or accepting hire for the carriage of passengers, goods, or materials for profit;
- “public street “ means any street, road, bridge, place or wharf under the care and control of the Council.
3. (1) The owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage (except such as are kept by the Governor-General, the Government, or any officer who is required to keep a horse, mule, ass or carriage in the performance of his public duties) kept or used in the towns of San Ignacio and Benque Viejo del Carmen shall, on or before the 1st day of January in each year or before any day on which such horse, mule, ass or carriage shall be kept or used, provide himself Licensing of horses, mules, asses and carriages.

with a licence in respect of each and every such horse, mule, ass or carriage as aforesaid which such owner shall keep or use:

Provided that the owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage who obtains a certificate from the Chief Executive Officer that such horse, mule, ass or carriage is used partially for the public service may obtain a licence therefor on payment of one half the prescribed fee:

And provided that notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law the owner of any horse, mule, ass or carriage who holds a licence in respect thereof duly granted by a competent authority of another District shall be entitled to keep or use the same in the towns of San Ignacio and Benque Viejo del Carmen without the necessity of providing himself with a licence in respect thereof.

(2) Applications for such licence shall be made to the Council.

(3) Such licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the sums following, that is to say, if the person liable under this by-law to provide himself with a licence shall have become so liable before the first day of April in any year he shall pay the full sum prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws; if any person shall become liable as aforesaid after the 31st day of March and before the 1st day of July in any year he shall only pay three-fourths of such sum; if after the 30th day of June and before the 1st day of October in any year, he shall only pay one-half of such sum; and if after the 30th day of September in any year he shall pay only one fourth of such sum. The Town Administrator shall keep a register of all licences so issued which register shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours.

(4) Every licence so issued shall be in the form prescribed by the Council and bear the date of the day of issue and shall continue in force therefrom until the next succeeding 31st day of December.

(5) Every licence issued under this by-law shall license the holder thereof to keep the number of animals or carriages specified on the return mentioned in By-law 6 of these By-Laws.

(6) No licence issued under this by-law shall be transferable and the animal or carriage which has passed from the ownership of the holder of a licence shall not be included or reckoned as of the number mentioned in such licence.

(7) If any person shall contrary to the provisions of this by-law keep or use any horse, mule, ass or carriage, he shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

4. (1) The owner of a carriage shall not keep or use the same or permit it to be kept or used within the towns of San Ignacio or Benque Viejo del Carmen as a public carriage unless it be licensed by the Council for that purpose in addition to being licensed under the preceding by-law.

Licensing and inspection of public carriages.

(2) No such carriage shall be licensed, or having been licensed shall be used as a public carriage unless the construction and state of repair of such carriage and of any harness, brakes, lamps, engine, steering gear, and other mechanism requisite for the efficient propulsion, guidance or control thereof be thoroughly sound and serviceable.

(3) Any such carriage intended to be licensed under this by-law shall be produced where directed to be inspected and tested by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy. The owner shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection and test as aforesaid and shall, if requested, dismantle and expose any part of the mechanism or machinery.

(4) If such carriage produced as aforesaid shall be found by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be thoroughly sound and serviceable to be licensed as a public carriage he or his said deputy shall give to the owner thereof a certificate in the form of the Second Schedule to these By-Laws.

(5) The licence for a public carriage shall be issued by the Town Administrator on the production by the applicant of a certificate given by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy as aforesaid, and upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(6) Such licence which shall be in the form of the Third Schedule to these By-Laws shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue and shall apply to the public carriage in respect of which it has been issued:

Provided that upon receipt of a transfer fee of twenty-five cents the Town Administrator may transfer any such licence to another carriage the property of the same owner after such substitute has been inspected and approved as aforesaid. Such transfer shall be endorsed upon the licence and the original carriage shall thereupon become unlicensed.

(7) The Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy may in writing order the owner of any public carriage to produce at any time such carriage and any horses or mules (if any) used for drawing the same for inspection. The owner shall obey such order and shall at the prescribed time produce such carriage and any horse or mule as aforesaid for inspection and shall at his own expense facilitate such inspection. If any such carriage or horse or mule shall at any time be certified by the Commissioner of Police, or his duly authorised deputy, to be unfit for use the Council may suspend the licence granted in respect of such carriage until such time as it is certified to the Council by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy that the defects of such carriage have been remedied to his satisfaction or that the horse or mule used in drawing the same is fit for use.

(8) The owner of a carriage who shall ply for or accept hire in respect of the same without first having obtained a licence for that purpose, or who having obtained a licence shall ply for or accept hire in respect of such carriage during the time such licence is suspended shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each day that he shall so let to hire such carriage.

(9) In the case of any public carriage certified by the Commissioner of Police or his duly authorised deputy to be of a superior class to carriages ordinarily plying for hire the Council may authorise the Town Administrator to endorse the licence of such carriage with the words "Special Licence". When a licence is so endorsed such public carriage shall be exempted from the fares set out in the Fifth Schedule of these By-Laws.

(10) The owner of every cart or dray drawn by horse or mule licensed as aforesaid for the carriage of goods or material shall paint or cause to be painted in figures of at least one and a half inches in length in a conspicuous position on each shaft of such cart or dray the number of the licence thereof.

5. (1) No person shall within the towns of San Ignacio and Benque Viejo del Carmen drive any carriage -

Licensing of drivers of carriages.

- (a) unless he obtains from the Council and legally holds a driver's licence;
- (b) after his driver's licence has expired or been cancelled;
- (c) while his driver's licence is under suspension;
- (d) while he is intoxicated or otherwise incapacitated;
- (e) while he is suffering from any infectious, contagious, or offensive disease, or skin complaint.

(2) The Council may in its discretion refuse a driver's licence to or may suspend or cancel the driver's licence of any person who -

- (a) has been convicted of being drunk whilst driving any carriage;
- (b) as driver of any carriage has been convicted of an offence against these By-Laws or against any motor vehicle regulations for the time being in force;
- (c) is, in its opinion, unfit to hold a driver's licence.

(3) A driver's licence shall be issued by the Town Administrator upon receipt of the licence fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these By-Laws.

(4) Every licensed driver of a public carriage who -

- (a) shall unreasonably refuse to admit and carry in such carriage any number of passengers not exceeding the number for which the same is licensed, provided always that no owner or driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or otherwise a menace or nuisance to other passengers therein; or
- (b) shall carry in his carriage any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease against the express objection of any two or more passengers in such carriage; or
- (c) shall unreasonably refuse to carry in his carriage, without extra charge, a reasonable quantity of luggage the property of any passenger, provided always that no driver shall be required to carry in his carriage any article of luggage likely to damage the carriage, or of an unreasonable weight or size; or

- (d) shall unreasonably refuse to hire such carriage to any person requiring to hire or ride in the same, or shall unreasonably refuse to drive such carriage to any place to which he shall be required to drive; or
- (e) shall let for hire or drive any such carriage which at the time of such hiring or driving shall be unfit for use, or which may be drawn by any horse or mule which is unfit for use; or
- (f) shall conduct himself insolently or improperly while in charge of any such carriage; or
- (g) shall leave any such carriage which is drawn by a horse or mule unattended or without proper control in any public street;

shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.

6. (1) Every person liable to take out any licence or licences under these By-Laws shall within one calendar month after the 1st day in every year upon which he shall become so liable and within one month after the first day in every year upon which he shall become so liable to take out a further licence under these By-Laws or any of them, make out and give in or cause to be given in to the Town Administrator a true and just return in writing in the form and containing the particulars mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

Returns to be made by licensees.

(2) Every such return shall be signed by the person making the same, provided that in the case of a person unable to write, his or her mark shall be made to such return in the presence of and shall be attested by a justice of the peace.

(3) Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly make a false return or who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make and give in or cause to be given in any such return shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.

Regulating the charges to be made by carts, drays and vans.

7. (1) The charges for goods and materials carried in or upon carts, drays and vans licensed for the carriage of goods and materials shall be those set forth in the Fifth Schedule to these By-Laws.

(2) Any owner or driver of such cart, dray or van who shall demand or attempt to obtain from any person or persons employing such cart, dray or van more than the charges set out in the said Schedule shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

8. (1) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall -

- (a) keep the same as near as practicable to the left side;
- (b) when meeting an animal with a rider thereon or carriage and when turning a corner keep to the left side of the road;
- (c) when overtaking an animal with a rider thereon or carriage pass upon the right side and not pull over to the left side until well clear of such animal or carriage or of any animal attached to any carriage;
- (d) on street crossings or intersections give precedence to any carriage approaching his left side, allowing the latter to cross or proceed in front of him;
- (e) before stopping, drive such animal or carriage close to the left side of the roadway and parallel thereto;

- (f) when about to stop or to turn a corner, raise his hand or give some intelligible signal of his intention, so that it may be visible to any person immediately following;
- (g) before turning to the right side from one street into another, drive or ride parallel to the left side of the street which he is leaving until he is as near as practicable to the left side of the street which he is entering;
- (h) cause the carriage or animal to be drawn as near as practicable to the left side of the street and parallel thereto and brought to a standstill and remain stationary as long as may be reasonably necessary on the approach of and during the passage of any fire-engine or other vehicle, apparently proceeding in charge of a fireman to a fire, or, whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger or collision with any pedestrian, animal or carriage;
- (i) at all times observe and comply with any reasonable directions of any police officer as to the manner of approaching and departing from any place, or of taking up or setting down passengers, or of loading or unloading goods, or as to the regulation of traffic;
- (j) upon any police officer holding up his hand or otherwise giving an order or direction, stop so long or proceed in such a manner as directed;

- (k) at the reasonable direction of any police officer remove his carriage or animal from where it is standing and either remove it from the vicinity or proceed to some adjacent portion of such street, or of some neighbouring street indicated by such officer;
- (l) if he has caused or has in any way been concerned in any accident, injury, or collision to or with any person, animal, or carriage give his name and address to the person injured or to some person on his behalf and to a police officer if one be present.
- (2) The driver of a carriage or the rider of an animal upon a public street shall not-
- (a) negligently or wilfully obstruct, hinder or prevent the free passage of any person, carriage; or animal.
- (b) cause to be drawn in front of or take precedence of any carriage or animal which from its position has a prior right to take up or set down passengers or goods, provided that no act done with the consent of or by the direction of any police officer shall be considered a breach of this by-law;
- (c) wilfully allow such carriage or animal to remain opposite the entrance of any street or across any passage, thoroughfare, or foot-crossing or upon the intersection of any streets, or allow the same to stand longer in any place where it is likely to endanger, obstruct, or inconvenience the traffic than is necessary for taking up or setting down passengers, or for loading or unloading goods or materials

- (d) negligently or wilfully ride such animal or ride or drive such vehicle within a distance of four feet of any foot passenger, or, under any circumstances, ride or drive at a rapid pace within such distance of any foot passenger;
- (e) be guilty of any insulting misconduct;
- (f) whilst driving such vehicle or riding such animal be in such a condition or position that he cannot have control of the same.

9. (1) No person shall upon a public street drive any carriage or ride any animal negligently, furiously, or recklessly.

Speed of vehicles:
Prevention and restriction of use of vehicles on certain streets.
