23rd July 2018

Press Release

The Elections and Boundaries Department is pleased to update the general public on the ongoing Re-registration of Electors Exercise.

An update is hereby provided for the period 15th to 21st July 2018.

Registration Centers continues to be open in all thirty-one (31) electoral divisions country-wide to facilitate the acceptance of applications for the registration of electors.

During the period, a total of Eighteen Thousand Five Hundred (18,500) applications have been accepted, therefore the total number of applications received as at 21st July 2018 is Fifty-Four Thousand Four Hundred and Fifty-One (54,451).

The general public is being reminded that their application for registration as an elector will be accepted in ANY of the registration centers which falls within their respective electoral division. The Independence Primary School Registration Center is also open to facilitate persons wishing to be registered who reside in Independence Village and other nearby surrounding villages of the Toledo East and Stann Creek West Electoral Divisions.

The Department continues to encourage all qualified persons to participate in the Re-registration Exercise, especially at this time where additional Registration Centers are open to facilitate the process.

Re-register: “Your Right to Vote Depends on it.”
