PRESS RELEASE

Updates on the 2018 Re-registration of Electors Exercise

The Elections and Boundaries Department continues to update the general public on the ongoing 2018 Re-registration of Electors Exercise.

An update is hereby provided as follows for the period 12th to 18th August, 2018.

Registration Centers continue to be opened in all thirty-one (31) electoral divisions country-wide to facilitate the acceptance of applications for the registration of electors.

During the period a total of Ten Thousand, One Hundred and Forty-One (10,141) applications have been accepted, therefore the total number of applications received as at 18th August 2018 is One Hundred and One Thousand, and Fourteen (101, 014).

The general public is hereby reminded that the present Registration Centers will be opened up to 31st August 2018. Commencing Monday 3rd September 2018, applications will only be accepted at the Elections and Boundaries Registration Offices.

Residents of the Mesopotamia Electoral Division are hereby advised that due to unforeseen circumstances, the Grace Primary School Registration Center has been re-located to the Grace Primary Library, situated in front of the Primary School on Amara Avenue. This relocation takes effect today 20th August, 2018.

The Department encourages all qualified persons to register TODAY and take advantage of the additional centers which are presently opened.

Re-Register: “Your Right to Vote Depends on It.”
